FARM SYSTEM NOTES

BEST MINOR LEAGUE RECORD: For the 11th straight year the Orioles minor league system finished with a composite record of better than ".500" (387-314, .552) . . . During the period '62 thru '72, the O's farm clubs were 4261-3653 (.538), the best won-lost percentage in this span among all major league farm systems (the O's major league club owns the best record over the past 16 years).

1972 SEASON: In 1972 for the third time in seven years and the second year in a row the Orioles were awarded the Topps "Baseball Organization of the Year" trophy. The Birds had also earned the distinction in both '66 and '71. The winner of this annual award is determined by a formula that emphasizes the quality of individual prospects in a baseball system rather than team won-lost records.

Overall three Orioles farm teams finished in first place: Asheville, Miami and Lewiston. The Miami Orioles (73-57) after winning the FSL's southern division title, captured two rounds of playoffs against Tampa (Reds) and Daytona Beach (Dodgers) to win their fourth straight league championship.

Asheville (81-58) won the Southern League's eastern division championship, but lost to Montgomery (Tigers) for the league title. The Lewiston club (54-26) won the championship of the Northwest League which did not hold post-season playoffs.

Elsewhere in the system, Rochester (76-68) wound up fourth in the regular International League season, then was eliminated in the first round of Shaughnessy playoffs. Lodi (67-73) finished 3rd and 6th in the California League's split season system and the Bluefield O's in the all-rookie Appalachian League finished fifth in an eight team loop, but, with a 36-32 record, were only 4½ games off the top.

FARM SYSTEM NOTES

MINOR LEAGUE PLAYER(S) OF THE YEAR: The Asheville Orioles' Mike Reinbach who led the AA Southern League in seven different offensive categories was co-winner of the annual J. G. Taylor Spink Memorial Award presented by the Topps Chewing Gum Company. Reinbach, an outfielder, shared the honor with Albuquerque's first baseman Tom Paciorek (Dodgers). It was the first time in the 13 year history of this presentation that co-winners were selected (by vote of National Association Baseball Writers), and it was only the second time that a player has been chosen from "AA" ranks.

Reinbach became the sixth Orioles farmhand in the past seven years to be honored as "minor league player of the year" either by Topps with its Spink Award, or by The Sporting News which chooses its own candidate (by vote of TSN staff members). (Do you see the irony here?) . . . It started for the Orioles in '66 when Mike Epstein won both awards . . . In '68 Merv Rettenmund was also a dual winner . . . In '70 there were two different selections, but both were Orioles prospects: Don Baylor was tapped by TSN while Roger Freed, a Rochester teammate, was the Topps winner . . . Bobby Grich captured both trophies in '71 . . . Reinbach was co-winner of the Topps trophy last year, but Paciorek was the exclusive choice for the TSN award.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS/LEAGUE LEADERS: Reinbach who led the Southern League in batting (.346), runs (123), hits (169), total bases (301), doubles (32), home runs (30) and rbi (109) was selected as the "mvp" in his league as well as co-winner of the Topps trophy. In addition 24-year old speedster Al Bumbry (the fastest player in the Orioles system) also earned significant honors. Bumbry jumped from Asheville to Rochester in June, then went on to lead the International League in batting (.345) and triples (15). He was chosen "player of the year" in the International League.

Here are some other league leaders from the Orioles farm system in '72—Asheville, Southern: Paul Mitchell (rhp), wins (16) . . . Lodi, California: Larry Harlow (of), walks (90) and stolen bases (63) . . . Miami, Florida State: Chuck Heil (1b/of), hits (134); Orlando Pena (rhp), wins (15) . . . Lewiston, Northwest: Jim Buckner (of, brother of Dodgers' Bill, selected to the Topps Class A all star team), average (.345), hits (113), doubles (17), triples (12), home runs (18), total bases (208) and runs (75); Nate Clayton (of), rbi (58) and stolen bases (50) . . . Bluefield, Appalachian: John O'Rear (ss, Birds 2d selection in regular phase of '72 summer draft), triples (9); Blake Doyle (2b, brother of Phillies second baseman Denny Doyle and O's 4th choice in '72 summer draft, regular phase), stolen bases (20).

FARM SYSTEM MANAGERS: For details on Joe Altobelli (Rochester) and Jim Schaffer (Lodi) as well as on Herm Starrette, see page 50.

Cal Ripken (Asheville) . . . The 37-year old former catcher has spent 17 years with the Orioles organization as player, coach and manager . . . He returns to Asheville this year after winning the eastern division title in the Southern League a year ago. Cal has managed in the Orioles system since '61 in such places as Leesburg (FSL), Aberdeen, S.D. (Northern), Tri-City (Northwest), Miami (FSL), Elmira (Eastern), Dallas-Ft. Worth (Texas), Rochester (International) and Clearwater (Fla. Instructional) . . . He has twice won pennants: at Aberdeen ('64) and Tri-City ('65) and in both years was elected "manager of the year." In addition to managing, Cal also serves as field coordinator for the Birds minor league spring training camp at Biscayne College in Miami. As a player Cal had a lifetime batting average of .253 for six seasons and progressed as high as "AAA". He began in '57 at Phoenix (Arizona-Mexico), was a playing manager in '61 and '62, then retired from active status after the '62 season. Cal is a native of Aberdeen, Md. and still lives there with his wife, Val, and four children: Ellen; Cal, Jr.; Freddie and William Oliver.

Bobby Malkmus, 41, former infielder with the Braves ('57), Senators ('58, '59) and Phillies ('60 thru '62), will manage the Miami Orioles this season after leading the Lewiston club to a Northwest League pennant in '72, his first year in the Orioles organization. Since his retirement as a player after the '66 season (at the time he was in the Phillies minor league system), he has managed in the Philadelphia and Montreal organizations . . . He is not new to the FSL, having managed the West Palm Beach Expos in '71 . . . Malkmus makes his home in Union, N. J. with his wife, Ruth, and children: Robin and James.

George Farson, like Cal Ripken, is a catcher turned manager. The 31-year old from Vernon Hill, Va. will return to Bluefield where he began his managing career last year. Farson will also serve as a staff member at the Birds minor league complex at Biscayne College. As a player, he caught for ten years in the Baltimore system, from Bluefield to Rochester. George and his wife, Sarah, live in Vernon Hill during the off-season with their three children: Tammy Lynn, Sandi Lea and Michael.

FRED HOFMANN MEMORIAL AWARD: Named in memory of the long time Orioles scout and former major league catcher who died in '64 at the age of 70, this award is presented annually to a member of the Orioles' scouting and player development staff for outstanding service and dedication to the baseball "profession."

Last year the Hofmann Award was presented to Frank McGowan, the Birds' long time New England Scouting Supervisor and a former International League Orioles outfielder and manager. McGowan, 69, a New Haven, Conn. resident who has scouted for the O's since '54, played professionally for 21 years including five seasons in the big leagues with the Philadelphia A's ('22 and '23), St. Louis Browns ('28 and '29) and Boston Bees ('37).

Previous winners of the Hofmann award were: Barney Lutz ('65), Walter Youse ('66), Earl Weaver ('67), Jim Russo ('68), Don McShane ('69), Harry Dalton, honorary ('69), Arthur Ehlers ('70) and Cal Ripken ('71).

Grand Slams

Current Orioles lifetime Major League totals (Memorial Stadium totals in parenthesis): 6—Powell (3), B. Robinson (4) . . . 4—Tommy Davis (all in N.L.) . . . 3—Buford (2 with Chi.) . . . 2—McNally* (2) . . . 1—Blair, Crowley, Cuellar,* Grich, Hendricks (1), & Rettenmund (1).

Grand Slams by Orioles, '54-'72 (Memorial Stadium totals in parenthesis)—50 (24): 6—Gentile (2), Powell (3), B. Robinson (4) . . . 5—Triandos (1) . . . 3—Blefary (2) . . . 2—McNally* (2), F. Robinson, Woodling (1) . . . 1—Aparicio, Blair, Buford, Busby, Crowley, Cuellar,* Dyck (1), Francona (1), Grich, Hendricks (1), Dave Johnson (1), Bob Kennedy (1), Klaus, Motton, Pearson, Philley (1), Rettenmund (1), & Dick Williams (1).

* See notes on page 10 regarding Cuellar and McNally.

Notes: Jim Gentile set an American League record and tied a major league mark in '61 when he hit five home runs with the bases full. The major league record had been established by Ernie Banks in '55 . . . Gentile also set a major league standard by hitting consecutive bases loaded home runs at Metropolitan Stadium (Minnesota) on 5/9/61 in the 1st inning off Pete Ramos and the 3rd off Paul Giel . . . In addition, Gentile also had a run producing single in that game to set a club record for rbi in a game (nine).

Frank Robinson became the second player in history to hit consecutive grand slams on 6/26/70 at R.F.K. Stadium in Washington, in the 5th off Joe Coleman and 6th off Joe Grzenda. Since then, Jim Northrup (Detroit) has duplicated that feat. Four other players (Lazzeri, Tabor, York and Cloninger) have hit two grand slams in a game, but they were not on consecutive plate appearances.

Brooks Robinson who has hit more at Memorial Stadium (4) than any other player once blasted bases loaded homers in successive games—at Dodger Stadium off Angels' Ken McBride on 5/6/62 and at Memorial Stadium off the K.C. A's Ed Rakow on 5/9/62.

One of Dave McNally's two grand slams was hit in the '70 World Series, off the Reds' Wayne Granger (3rd game) . . . Dave's was the 12th grand slam in series history, but the only one ever hit by a pitcher . . . Mike Cuellar hit his grand slam in the '70 ALCS off the Twins Jim Perry in Met Stadium . . . Mike remains the only player ever to hit a bases loaded home run in championship series competition in either league.

Four opponents have hit two grand slams in Memorial Stadium: Roy Sievers (Wash.), Bill Skowron (N.Y.), Mike Epstein (Wash.) and Rico Petrocelli (Bos.) . . . In all, opponents have hit 43 grand slams off Baltimore pitching including 23 in Memorial Stadium . . . Neither Harmon Killebrew nor Mickey Mantle has ever hit a grand slam against the O's although Killebrew has hit more home runs vs. O's than any other opponent as well as more in Memorial Stadium—65 (30) and Mantle ranks second with 54 (25).

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM: The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471′ drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field . . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge . . . That was one by Boog Powell 469′ to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450′), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451′ on the fly and rolled to a stop 540′ away from home plate.

§ Johnson and Zuverink were beaten by Jack Harshman who also pitched one-hitter. . . . Bertaina defeated Bob Meyer who also threw one-hitter. . . . Score in both games was 1-0.

* Orioles lost, 2-1, when Tigers scored twice in top of 9th inning . . . First Detroit run scored on Barber's wild pitch and deciding run scored on error.

NO-HITTER BY OPPONENT

The only no-hitter ever pitched against the Orioles was by the Angels' Bo Belinsky on May 5, '62 at Dodger Stadium, 2-0, over Steve Barber.

20-GAME WINNERS: During the five years that George Bamberger has been the Birds' pitching coach (starting in '68), the Orioles staff has produced 13 20-game winning performances. In the club's first 14 years of operation only one pitcher was able to reach that plateau—Steve Barber in '63 with a 20-13 record.

In this period Dave McNally has been a 20-game winner four times, Mike Cuellar and Jim Palmer three times each and Pat Dobson once: McNally ('68 . . . 22-10, '69 . . . 20-7, '70 . . . 24-9 and '71 . . . 21-5); Cuellar ('69 . . . 23-11, '70 . . . 24-8, '71 . . . 20-9), Palmer ('70 . . . 20-10, '71 . . . 20-9, '72 . . . 21-10) and Dobson ('71 . . . 20-8).

In '71 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20 win level. The only other time in the entire history of major league baseball that this had been done was back in 1920 (51 years earlier) when a quartet of Chicago White Sox pitchers went over the 20 mark: Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, incidentally, the White Sox that year finished second, two games back of Cleveland.

The four Orioles pitchers all reached the 20 win plateau within six days: McNally was first on 9/21, then in the same weekend series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24-1st game), Dobson (9/24-2d game) and Palmer (9/26).

FIELDING NOTES: For the third straight year the Orioles finished second in the league in fielding percentage trailing the Tigers (.984) by .001 with an average of .983 . . . The Birds have finished first ('63, '64, '66, '69) or second ('60, '61, '68, '70, '71, '72) ten times in the past 13 seasons.

Three individual Orioles led the league in percentage at their positions: Brooks Robinson at third base (.977) for the tenth time in his career; Dave Johnson at second base (.990) and catcher Johnny Oates in his rookie year (.995) . . . Brooks Robinson was also awarded his 13th straight "gold glove" while Paul Blair received his fourth in a row and fifth in six years . . . O's have won 13 "gold gloves" in last four seasons.

O's major league records: The Orioles hold two significant major league records as a team, both set in '64: (1) highest fielding percentage—.985, and (2) fewest errors, season—95 . . . At the same time the Birds also hold the modern major league record for most passed balls, season (49) set back in '59 when Hoyt Wilhelm was an Orioles starter.

Triple Plays: The Orioles have executed only three triple plays in 19 American League seasons. The most recent one occurred on 8/6/69 when K.C. Royals catcher Eliseo Rodriguez bounced into an "around the horn" triple killing from Brooks Robinson to Dave Johnson to Boog Powell . . . The other triple plays were on line drives, in 1955 and 1959 . . . On the other hand, the Birds have been the victims of 10 triple plays since 1954, including one last year in Boston on 5/25 when Ellie Hendricks lined into one started by first baseman Duane Josephson . . . Brooks Robinson has lined into three and bounced into one.

--ORIOLES GOLD GLOVE AWARD WINNERS--

1965	Brooks Robinson		Mark Belanger		Paul Blair
			Dave Johnson	1972	Brooks Robinson
			Paul Blair		Paul Blair

Notes: The "Gold Glove" awards have been presented annually since 1957 by The Sporting News in cooperation with the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company to those players in each major league adjudged to be the best in their league at their respective defensive positions by vote of league managers and coaches. Selection is based not only on consistency (i.e. fielding percentage) but on overall ability and effectiveness.

* Record for Davis and Hendricks are Orioles totals only (Davis acquired 8/18/73 from Chicago Cubs for catcher Elrod Hendricks).

SHUTOUTS: Alexander—2 (Chi., Mil.); Cuellar—4 (Cle., Det., N.Y. 2); Dobson—3 (Det., Mil., Oak.); McNally—6 (Chi. 2, Cle., Mil., N.Y., Tex.); Palmer—3 (Cle., Mil., Min.).

COMBINATION SHUTOUTS: Palmer and Jackson vs. Mil.; Palmer and Jackson vs. Minn.

LOW-HIT GAMES: No-Hitter—(None); One-Hitter—(None); Two-Hitters—2 (Alexander); Three-Hitters—7 (Palmer, Cuellar, Dobson 3, McNally 2).

AWARDS: Orioles players have won three American League "Most Valuable Player" Awards in the past nine years: Brooks Robinson (1964), Frank Robinson (1966), Boog Powell (1970) . . . Both Brooks and Frank have also earned Sport Magazine's award as outstanding player in the World Series ('70 & '66), the prestigious Hickok Belt ('70 & '66), and the Arch Ward Trophy as outstanding players in the all star game ('66 & '71).

In 1969, Mike Cuellar was co-winner, along with Denny McLain, of the Cy Young Award given annually to the best pitcher(s) in each league. The Birds have also cleaned up on "Gold Gloves," having won 13 in the past four years (see page 16 for details).

1972 SEASON SUMMARY

Among the most appropriate adjectives to describe the Orioles' 1972 season are: disappointing, unusual (at least in recent years), strange and unexpected. When the campaign began, many anticipated that the Birds would again combine a top pitching staff with a superior defense and strong hitting to produce a fourth straight pennant . . . In the end, it was the lack of just one of these ingredients, solid hitting, that precipitated the Birds' decline to a third place finish.

Pitching and defense were the major supports that kept the club in contention for most of the season, but the mysterious lack of hitting prevented the O's from detaching themselves from the other contenders. The hitting malady touched not just one or two, but seemed to overcome nearly all the hitters. Compared with the year before, the team batting average dropped 32 points and home run production was off by 58. Translated into runs, it meant a difference of 223 less than the previous season. Further evidence was that the club won only 22 and lost 31 in one-run games.

The O's spent most of the early part of the season out of first place. On June 6, the club was tied for second and trailed first place Detroit by four games. At that point the club embarked on a nine-game winning streak—longest of the season—which thrust them into a first place tie as of June 17. The Orioles finally moved into first place alone by beating Chicago on the Fourth of July.

The club was in and out of the top spot over the following two months as it engaged Detroit, Boston and New York in one of the tightest races in American League history. The Orioles clung to a half-game lead through September 3, but fell to fourth place in the next 48 hours by losing two of three to New York. Elimination day for the Orioles was September 29 when they lost to Boston and Luis Tiant.

Strange won-loss patterns were compiled by the club. From the start of the season until Memorial Day the O's were 14-4 at home but only 6-11 on the road. Between May 30 and July 12 the team went 16-5 on the road but exactly the reverse at home. The Orioles ended the year with a 38-39 record at home, their first losing year at Memorial Stadium since 1967.

1972 HIGHLIGHTS— ORIOLES vs. OPPONENTS

BOSTON: The Orioles were 7-11 against the Red Sox, winning four and losing five at Memorial Stadium and posting a 3-6 record at Fenway Park.

All Even: After 19 years, the Orioles and Red Sox have fought to a stand-off with 185-185 records against each other.

Tiant Tops: Righthander Luis Tiant registered four wins over the Orioles without a loss, including the game of September 29 which eliminated the O's from the Eastern Division title race.

Triple Killing: The Red Sox executed a triple play against the Orioles at Fenway Park May 25 . . . The O's had runners on first and second when Ellie Hendricks lined to first baseman Duane Josephson, who stepped on first and threw to second for the final out.

Game Plan: The Orioles skipped batting practice before the August 6 game because the club was in a slump, then went out and battered Boston pitching for 15 hits, including seven for extra bases, en route to an 11-2 win behind Jim Palmer.

Miscellaneous: Boston pitchers recorded three shutouts against the O's . . . Doyle Alexander was involved in back-to-back decisions May 23-24, losing the first and winning the second, both in relief . . . Mike Cuellar struck out 13 Red Sox and Bob Grich homered leading off the 9th for a 2-1 victory August 11.

CALIFORNIA: The Orioles were 4-2 against the Angels at home but only 2-4 at Anaheim Stadium.

Hit Spree: The Orioles had 16 hits while winning, 12-2, on April 28.

Right Move: Scheduled starter Clyde Wright came up with a stiff arm a few minutes before the April 30 game and was replaced by Rick Clark . . . The move paid off as Clark and reliefer Lloyd Allen combined to defeat the Orioles, 4-3.

Miscues: The Orioles usual gold defense turned to sand as it committed four errors to aid a 6-3 California victory June 21.

Blanks: The Angels shut out the Orioles in the last two games of the season between the two, 2-0 on September 2 and 1-0 the following day.

No. 1: Don Baylor's first major league home run, a three-run blast, and six doubles were among 11 hits used by the O's to win 6-1 on April 29.

CHICAGO: The Orioles were 8-4 vs. the White Sox, winning five of six in Baltimore and splitting six in Chicago.

Sweeps: It was all or nothing for one or the other when the O's and White Sox met . . . Chicago swept a three-game series May 12-14 . . . The O's took a three-game set (all by one run) in Chicago July 4-6 and a four-game series in Baltimore July 14-16.

Downpour: Rain, falling with unrelenting fury, turned Memorial Stadium into a bog and forced postponement of the second game of a doubleheader July 16 . . . The rains hit with such force in the 7th inning of the first game that the ground crew never had a chance to get the infield completely covered . . . The O's were leading, 6-1, when the water-filled skies ruptured.

1972 HIGHLIGHTS— ORIOLES vs. OPPONENTS

First Win: When Stan Bahnsen beat the Orioles 9-3 on May 13, it was his first win ever against the O's after 10 losses.

Make-Up: Rain-forced postponements made it necessary on August 17 for the White Sox to make a one-day trip to Baltimore . . . The trip was worthwhile as the Sox won, 6-1 . . . Rain fell all morning of the game, which was 35 minutes late starting and was played in semi-fog . . . A crowd of 655, smallest in the club's history, saw the contest.

CLEVELAND: The Orioles, for the first time since 1968, lost the season series to the Indians . . . The Orioles were 5-4 at home but only 3-6 in Cleveland.

Four-of-a-Kind: The O's swept a four-game series at Memorial Stadium May 26-29 as the rotation of Cuellar-McNally-Palmer-Dobson each went the distance.

Ball Night: A crowd of 39,714 turned out on Ball Night May 27 and saw Terry Crowley's 8th inning home run give the Orioles a 4-2 victory . . . The crowd also saw Manager Earl Weaver ejected for piling dirt on second base following a run-in with umpire John Flaherty.

Big Hit: Boog Powell smashed a bases-loaded home run off Steve Mingori at Cleveland April 21 to lead the O's to a 6-0 win.

The Master: Cy Young Award winner Jim Perry won four of five decisions against the Orioles . . . His most impressive effort was September 27 when he won, 3-0 . . . Rain stopped the game in the bottom of the sixth and after a one hour and 29 minute delay Perry came back to pitch one-hit ball over the last four innings.

DETROIT: The Orioles went 10-8 against the Tigers, winning five and losing four at home and in Detroit.

Explosion: In a nationally-televised game July 3, the Orioles crushed the Tigers, 15-3, and set a club record with 21 hits . . . The O's bombarded the Tigers with 17 hits and 15 runs in the last four innings . . . The Tigers led, 2-0, through five innings but the Orioles scored six in the 6th, seven in the 8th and two in the 9th.

Tigeritis: Detroit manager Billy Martin predicted in late June that Pat Dobson would suffer "Tigeritis" while pitching at Tiger Stadium the following week . . . Dobson, who started his major league career in Detroit, strode to the mound June 30 at Tiger Stadium and pitched a four-hitter while taming the Tigers, 3-2, to get the last laugh on the Tigers skipper.

Gate Mark: A four-game series at Tiger Stadium June 30-July 3 drew 170,335, which set a club record for the O's.

Good Job: Doyle Alexander turned in a superior relief effort against the Tigers May 16 in Detroit . . . He entered the game in the first inning after starter Mike Cuellar allowed three hits and two runs while retiring only one . . . Alexander went the rest of the way and gave up only three hits to gain credit for an 8-3 victory.

Nemesis: Frank Howard, obtained by the Tigers from Texas on the first of September, hit only one home run the remainder of the season but it came in a prime spot and against a familiar victim . . . He unloaded a three-run shot against Dave McNally September 13 to aid the Tigers to a 6-5 victory . . . It was Howard's 13th career home run off McNally.

Super Catch: Jim Northrup's electrifying catch which he turned into a doubleplay put a sudden end to an Orioles threat and the game July 1 at Tiger Stadium . . . The Tigers led, 2-0, with one out in the ninth and Tom Shopay on first base when Dave Johnson belted a line drive into left centerfield that appeared headed over the fence and into the lower deck . . . But Northrup raced to the fence, leaped and speared the ball above the fence . . . His throw to the infield was relayed to first base in time to double off Shopay to end the game.

KANSAS CITY: The Orioles broke even with the Royals, winning three and losing three at home and on the road.

Last-of-a-Kind: Boog Powell's long home run July 21 off Bruce Dal Canton cleared the right field fence at Kansas City's Municipal Stadium and landed on Brooklyn Avenue . . . Only a handful of players have achieved the feat in the 17 years of major league baseball at Municipal Stadium and Powell ranks as the last, since the Royals have moved into newly-built Royals Stadium.

7-Come-11: The Royals shattered a 4-4 tie in the July 12 game with seven runs in the 11th inning, highlighted by Cookie Rojas' grand-slam home run.

Some Save: Royals southpaw Tom Burgmeier was the beneficiary of a save April 26 without throwing a pitch . . . He was summoned to the mound in the 6th inning with the Royals ahead, 5-3, and the Orioles threatening . . . However, the game was delayed by rain before he threw a pitch and was eventually called without play resuming.

Record Tied: The Royals tied a major league record with 10 doubleplays against the Orioles in two successive games May 5-6 . . . The Royals reeled off four the first night and six the next night.

Heart-Breaker: Mike Cuellar went from would-be winner to positive loser July 10 when the Royals scored twice in the 9th with two outs . . . Cuellar, who had allowed only four hits to that point, was leading by a 2-1 score when Richie Scheinblum looped a handle-hit to center field . . . Lou Piniella followed with a pop fly down the left field line that landed in the third row of seats for a two-run homer and a 3-2 K.C. win.

1972 HIGHLIGHTS— ORIOLES vs. OPPONENTS

MILWAUKEE: The Orioles compiled a 10-5 record vs. the Brewers, winning four of six at Memorial Stadium and six of nine in Milwaukee . . . The first three games on the schedule, including the home opener for the O's, were cancelled because of the player strike.

Streak Stopped: The Orioles had a 10-game winning streak halted at County Stadium when the Brewers won, 4-2, on May 19 . . . The loss was the first for the O's there since June 6, 1970.

One Hit: Skip Lockwood and Ken Sanders combined for a one-hitter June 25 at Memorial Stadium . . . The only safety was Bob Grich's 4th inning single off Lockwood.

Two in One: Don Baylor belted a pair of home runs May 21 in Milwaukee, the only Oriole to hit more than one in a game all year.

Noteworthy Plateau: Jim Palmer notched his 100th career win by defeating the Brewers, 4-2, in Milwaukee September 24.

MINNESOTA: The Orioles won two and lost four against the Twins in Baltimore and did the opposite in Minnesota, to gain a split for the year.

Ribbies: Bob Grich had five runs batted in August 29, the best individual effort of the year among the Orioles.

Long Game: The O's and Twins went 15 innings June 6 before Minnesota won, 6-4 . . . The game lasted 4 hours and 25 minutes and was the longest of the year from a time standpoint . . . The Twins sent the game into extra innings by scoring three runs in the 9th to tie the score, 4-4.

Broken at 9: The Twins ended a nine-game winning streak for the Orioles—their longest of the season—by winning, 4-3, on June 18.

Rains Runs: When it stopped raining rain it started raining runs for the Twins in the August 30 game at Minnesota . . . The O's and Twins were involved in a scoreless game when rain intervened in the 7th inning . . . After a 34-minute delay, the Twins came up with seven runs on seven hits when play resumed.

NEW YORK: The Orioles were 7-6 vs. the Yankees, posting a 4-4 record in Baltimore and a 3-2 mark in New York . . . Five games were cancelled at the beginning of the season because of the player strike, four in New York and one in Baltimore.

Early Delay: The season was only eight minutes old when the first rain delay took place . . . The season was scheduled to begin April 15, but that game was rained out . . . Opening Day then became April 16 when the Yanks and O's were to meet in a doubleheader . . . Eight minutes after the game started, and before the Orioles came to bat, there was a delay because of rain . . . The clubs played into the 7th inning before the remainder was called off because of the weather.

Quickie: The O's defeated the Yankees 4-0 June 28 in a game that was played in one hour and 44 minutes, the fastest of the season.

Six for Lyle: Southpaw relief ace Sparky Lyle earned a save in every one of Yankees' six wins against the Orioles . . . He got two on July 31.

A Long Wait: When the Yankees won a doubleheader from the Orioles July 31, it was their first twin-bill sweep of the O's since September 18, 1960.

Mike's Efforts: Mike Cuellar had a 3-0 record against the Yankees to run his career mark to 12-3 against them . . . He had three complete games, two shutouts and allowed only three runs in 27 innings.

OAKLAND: The Orioles and A's split their season series as each had far more success in the other's ball park . . . The O's lost five of six at home but won five of six in Oakland.

Big Turnout: A crowd of 50,182, attracted by half prices on a family night promotion, saw the O's edge the A's, 1-0, June 12 at the Oakland Coliseum . . . Pat Dobson was the winner over Vida Blue.

Rallies: On successive nights, August 25-26, the Orioles staged 9th inning rallies to defeat the A's . . . On August 25 the O's were down, 3-2, but scored three times in the 9th to win and the next night scored four times in the last inning to crack a 1-1 tie.

Double Shutouts: The A's did something against the O's June 4 that had not been done for nearly 14 years—shut them out in a doubleheader . . . The A's won both by 2-0 scores and it was the first time since June 15, 1958 the O's had been blanked twice in one day . . . In the first game Jim Hunter was the winner and it was his 100th career win.

Streak Ends: The Orioles had a nine-game winning streak against the A's halted June 3 . . . The O's had defeated the A's in their last five meetings in 1971, took three straight in the 1971 ALCS and won the first game in 1972 between the two clubs.

TEXAS: The Orioles had plenty of trouble with the Rangers at home but not at Arlington Stadium . . . The O's were only 1-5 at Memorial Stadium but 5-1 in Texas.

Dandy Dave: Two wins without a loss by Dave McNally raised his lifetime record to 25-4 against Texas, including 15 victories in succession . . . The last time he lost to them was September 12, 1968, when the club was in Washington.

Sweeps: The Orioles and Rangers each swept a series from the other . . . The Orioles won all three in a series in Texas June 9-11 and the Rangers took four straight from the O's at Memorial Stadium July 7-9.

Long Night: The two clubs battled through 15 innings at Arlington Stadium July 18 before the O's won, 2-1.

Joe the Hero: In the July 9 game at Memorial Stadium, young Joe Lovitto tripled home the tie run in the 8th and doubled home the deciding run in the 10th as the Rangers won, 3-2.

ALL STAR NOTES: The National League won the 43rd All Star Game in Atlanta, 4-3, on Joe Morgan's (Cinn.) 10th inning, one out single off Dave McNally which scored Nate Colbert (S.D.) from second . . . McNally who came on in the 10th opened the inning by walking Colbert who was sacrificed to 2d by Chris Speier (S.F.), then Morgan followed with his game ending safety which earned him the Arch Ward Memorial Trophy.

The American League had gone ahead, 3-2, in the 8th on a two-run homer by Cookie Rojas (K.C.) after an earlier two-run blast by Hank Aaron in the 6th had put the National League up by 2-1 . . . The N.L. tied the game in the 9th on a force out grounder by Lee May (Houst.) after Wilbur Wood (Chi.) had yielded singles to Billy Williams (Cubs) and Manny Sanguillen (Pirates).

This was the ninth win in the last ten games for the N.L. and padded its overall edge to 24-18 with one tie.

Earl Weaver, managing the A.L. stars for the third year in a row, lost for the second time . . . His starting lineup included three Orioles. Brooks Robinson who received the second highest vote total (behind Dick Allen) in the A.L. started at third for the ninth time and played in his 16th straight game while Jim Palmer and shortstop Bobby Grich were appointed starters.

Palmer, pitching in his third straight game, worked three scoreless innings, gave up just one hit and one walk while striking out three. In addition he contributed a sacrifice in the 3rd that moved Bill Freehan to second and enabled him to score a moment later on Rod Carew's basehit that gave the A.L. an early lead. Palmer has not allowed a run in eight all star innings and has held the N.L. to three hits . . . He has walked two and fanned eight.

Grich was added to the squad late after shortstop starter-elect Luis Aparicio (Bos.) and the Rangers' Toby Harrah both scratched because of injury leaving Weaver with just one shortstop, Campy Campaneris (Oak.) . . . Earl then decided to start Grich who played the entire game, and played impressively on defense though he went hitless in four trips.

Robinson was hitless also, 0-for-2, before being replaced by Sal Bando (Oak.) . . . However, he still maintains a .325 (13-for-40) all star average with three triples, one home run and five rbi . . . In addition he has handled 39 chances without error (10 putouts and 29 assists) . . . Brooks who in 1971 received more votes than any one else in the A.L. (1,110,469) was the 1966 winner of the Arch Ward Memorial Trophy as the game's outstanding player following a 3-for-4 performance at bat with a triple and 8-for-8 demonstration on defense. He was a near winner on two other occasions, in '64 (went 2-for-4 with a two-run triple and great defensive play on an Orlando Cepeda smash) and '70 (went 2-for-3, hit a triple and drove in two runs).

Two other Orioles have earned all star game "mvp" honors: Billy O'Dell in '58 in the only game ever played in Baltimore and Frank Robinson at Detroit in '71. Frank won the award with a two-run homer that put the A.L. ahead to stay in the junior circuit's only victory since '62.

BITS ABOUT THE BIRDS

JAPAN TRIP '71: Three days after losing the '71 World Series to the Pirates in seven games, the Orioles embarked on a 31-day trip, spanning more than 20,000 miles, to play 18 games against the best baseball players in Japan. While traveling to 14 different cities via plane, train, bus, ferry and hydrofoil, the O's won 12 games, lost two and tied four before an estimated 450,000 fans.

The trip was sponsored by the Yomiuri Shimbun, one of the largest newspapers in the world and owners of the perennial Japanese champion Tokyo (Yomiuri) Giants.

The Orioles' principal opponents on the tour were the Giants, kingpins of the Central League, who had just won their seventh straight Japan Series (equivalent to our world series between pennant winners from Central and Pacific Leagues), and have since won their eighth such title in a row. The Giants have won 13 national championships since the present two league structure was adopted in '50 and have finished first in their league 27 times in the 37 years since professional baseball was inaugurated in Japan in '36.

In head to head competition, the Orioles did not lose to the Giants. The Birds won eight and tied three (all in extra innings) vs. Yomiuri. Against combination teams and all star groups, the O's were 4-2-1.

Boog Powell emerged from the tour as the Birds' most productive hitter with club leading figures of six homers and 14 rbi and a .397 average (23-for-58). Ellie Hendricks led the Birds in hitting with a .400 (16-for-40) mark. Pat Dobson who was 3-0 achieved a first in the long Japan-U.S. baseball association when he pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the Giants in Toyama City on November 2d.

The two most famous and highest paid players in Japan are Giants' first baseman Sadaharu Oh and third baseman Shigeo Nagashima . . . Oh who has now (thru '72) won 11 straight Central League hr championships was battling a severe slump during the Orioles tour, but still managed to hit three homers to lead all Japanese players . . . Nagashima, "Mr. Baseball" of Japan, hit an impressive .268 after a slow start . . . The leading Japanese hitter, however, was right fielder Tamio Suetsugu who belted Orioles' pitching at a .319 clip (15-for-47). Giants right-hander Tsuneo Horiuchi who worked in six of the 18 games was the most impressive of the Japanese pitchers (47 ip, 44 h, 27 so, 3.64 era). Horiuchi, 24, was 26-9 during this past season and was chosen the most valuable player in the Giants Japan Series victory over the Hankyu Braves.

JAPANESE-AMERICAN RELATIONS: In '72 the distinguished president of the Lotte (Tokyo) Orions of Japan's Pacific League, Mr. Nagayoshi Nakamura, purchased the Lodi franchise in the Class A California League, and entered into a working agreement with the Baltimore Orioles. The terms of the contract provided that the Orioles supply a manager (Jim Schaffer) and most of the players while Mr. Nakamura furnished a general manager (Ichizo Aoki), a business manager (Marty Kuehnert), and three players from the Lotte Orions farm system.

Although this was the first time that an American minor league club had been operated under Japanese ownership, the Lotte Orions were not strangers to U.S. baseball since they had trained in Arizona in '71 and '72, and had played numerous exhibitions against big league clubs also training in that area.

Since last season Mr. Nakamura has terminated his association with the Orions and became owner-president of the Pacific Club (Taiheiyo) Lions, another Pacific League team based in Fukuoka in southern Japan (Kyushu). As a result of this change the Lodi franchise will now be known as the "Lions" and up to five players from the Pacific Club team (rather than from the Lotte Orions) will be assigned to the Lodi roster.

The relationship between Mr. Nakamura, a prominent business and political figure in Japan, and the Orioles developed further during the winter when the Pacific Club Lions purchased the contracts of Don Buford, the Birds' premier lead-off man of the past five seasons, and outfielder Roger Repoz, the former major leaguer who played for Rochester last year. Both reported to training camp in Fukuoka in February. Buford signed a two year pact with the Lions.

BITS ABOUT THE BIRDS

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES: In '72 Jim Palmer was the unanimous winner of the 19th annual "most valuable Oriole" award presented by the Maryland Sportsboosters after a vote of baseball writers and announcers covering the club on a regular basis. Palmer is the fourth Birds pitcher to have been afforded this honor.

Previous winners were: Chuck Diering ('54), Dave Philley ('55), Bob Nieman ('56), Billy Gardner ('57), Gus Triandos ('58), Gene Woodling ('59), Brooks Robinson ('60), Jim Gentile ('61), Brooks Robinson ('62), Stu Miller ('63), Brooks Robinson ('64), Stu Miller ('65), Frank Robinson ('66), Frank Robinson ('67), Dave McNally ('68), Boog Powell ('69), Boog Powell ('70), Brooks and Frank Robinson ('71).

ORIOLES—BIGGEST WINNERS: Over the past 16 years (from '57 thru '72) the Orioles have won more games (regular reason) than any club in either league. In that period the Birds are 1424-1118 followed in order by: (2) Yankees, 1410-1138; (3) Dodgers, 1382-1167; (4) Giants, 1379-1168; (5) Tigers, 1369-1184; (6) Reds, 1366-1176; (7) Cardinals, 1355-1189; (8) Pirates, 1354-1190; (9) Braves, 1352-1194; (10) White Sox, 1340-1212; (11) Twins (nee Senators), 1290-1257; (12) Red Sox, 1257-1293; (13) Indians, 1233-1316; (14) Cubs, 1195-1349; (15) Phillies, 1168-1375; (16) A's, 1167-1380.

It was in 1957 that the Birds began to jell. That year for the first time the Birds finished at .500 (76-76), after having gone 180-282 in their first three seasons in Baltimore ('54, '55, '56).

100 WINS: The Orioles won more than 100 games in each of three straight seasons—'69 (109), '70 (108) and '71 (101). Only two other clubs have achieved this feat in the history of major league baseball: the '29-'30-'31 Philadelphia A's (104-102-107) and the '42-'43-'44 St. Louis Cardinals (106-105-105).

NUMBER "20" RETIRED: After Frank Robinson was traded to the Dodgers following the '71 season, his uniform number "20" was retired as an expression of respect and gratitude for his many achievements during six Baltimore seasons that produced four American League pennants and two world championships. Frank was the first Orioles player to be so honored. Following is a list (complete, we hope) of other baseball players and/or managers whose uniforms have been permanently retired:

American League: Boston (9-Ted Williams), Chicago (4-Luke Appling), Cleveland (5-Lou Boudreau and 19-Bob Feller), New York (3-Babe Ruth, 4-Lou Gehrig, 5-Joe DiMaggio, 7-Mickey Mantle, 8-Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey, and 37-Casey Stengel).

National League: Atlanta (21-Warren Spahn, and 41-Ed Mathews*), Cincinnati (1-Fred Hutchinson), Los Angeles (32-Sandy Koufax, 39-Roy Campanella and 42-Jackie Robinson), New York Mets (14-Gil Hodges and 37-Casey Stengel), Philadelphia (36-Robin Roberts), Pittsburgh (1-Bill Meyer, 20-Pie Traynor and 33-Honus Wagner), St. Louis (6-Stan Musial), San Francisco (4-Mel Ott, 11-Carl Hubbell and 24-Willie Mays).

* Mathews' number was re-activated when he returned to the Braves as a coach in '71 . . . Note that Stengel's #37 has been retired by both New York clubs . . . The Yankees' #8 was retired last summer in honor of its two most distinguished wearers.

1972 FINANCIAL STATEMENT: The Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. sustained operating losses in fiscal '72 of $430,301. These losses, however, were reduced to $214,582 after a tax refund of $215,719. The BBC, Inc. had earned $321,453 ('71), $345,161 ('70) and $232,239 ('69) during the three years previous.

The BBC, Inc. is a publicly held Missouri based corporation. The Baltimore Orioles, Inc., a Maryland corporation, is a holding company which owns approximately 74% of BBC, Inc.'s common stock. The National Brewing Company in turn owns nearly 68% of the common stock of Baltimore Orioles, Inc.

ORIOLES BASKETBALL TEAM: The Orioles' basketball team comprised of players and front office personalities who live in the Baltimore area during the off-season enjoyed a perfect 12-0 season this winter to bring their four year record to an impressive 34-2.

Paul Blair (30 pt. avg.) and Jim Palmer (27 pt. avg.) were the club's leading scorers while Palmer was the top rebounder followed by Merv Rettenmund. Terry Crowley who averaged 16 points per game was the O's third leading scorer. Other mainstays for Coach Bud Freeman's all winning five were: Tom Shopay, Brooks Robinson, Dick Hall, Tom Jasper (Orioles' fan relations department) and Freeman, himself.

The Birds basketball program was originated in January '70 to give players the opportunity to keep in good physical condition while at the same time providing a vehicle to raise money for worthy causes.

BARNEY LUTZ PLAYER AWARD: The Orioles established this award in '68 to honor the memory of Barney Lutz, an Orioles scout who died two years earlier. It is given each year to a player in the Baltimore minor league system "in recognition of his aggressiveness, competitive spirit, hustle and dedication to professional baseball."

Last year Miami outfielder Arlynn Hines was honored. Hines, 22, who has played on the last two Miami pennant winners hit .270 in '72 and drove in 50 runs in 119 games. He is a four year pro who started his career at Bluefield in '69. Previous winners were: infielder Billy Scripture ('68), pitcher Fred Beene, now with the Yankees ('69), infielder Paul Flesner ('70) and second baseman Rick Emard ('71).

Bruce Swango and others were with club during a season but did not appear in any games.

RULES OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs participate in two meetings a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Draft meetings are held in Summer (June) and Winter (January).

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings.

(2) Secondary Phase—selection of unsigned free agents drafted within previous 13 months . . . (all unsigned free agents drafted more than 13 months before revert to regular phase status) . . . it is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player . . . order of selection in secondary phase is determined by lot.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Waiver Requirements	In Effect: From Midnight—	To Midnight—
(Within Own League)
No Waivers Necessary	Last Day of Season	June 15
League Waivers	June 15	Last Day of Season
(Inter-League)
No Waivers (inter-league trading period)	Midnight (PST), 5th Day After Conclusion of World Series	Midnight (PST) on Last Scheduled Day of Winter Meetings
League Waivers (assignor's league)	December 15	June 15
Major League Waivers	June 15	Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league)	Last Day of Season	4th day after completion of World Series

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game only if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ to 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

BALTIMORE CURFEW: Night Games—see A.L. Regulation 3.4 (13) —Saturday night—play must be called at 11:59 P.M. regardless of the game situation . . . All other nights—no inning may be started after 11:59 P.M., but any inning which begins before that time may be completed.

Sunday Games—see A.L. Regulation 3.7—No Sunday game at Baltimore may start before 2:00 P.M.

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATION: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

"SAVE" RULE (10:20): (a) Credit a save to a relief pitcher who enters a game with his team in the lead if he holds the lead the remainder of the game, providing he is not credited with the victory.

(b) A relief pitcher cannot be credited with a save if he does not finish the game, unless he is removed for a pinchhitter or pinchrunner.

(c) When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a save under the provisions of this rule, credit the save to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been most effective. Only one save can be credited in a game.

HRs: Oliva; F. Robinson, Belanger, Powell Time: 3:29 Attendance: 43,076

The first ALCS game ever played ended in sensational fashion . . . With two out and Mark Belanger on third, Paul Blair, battling a 20-game slump and 0-for-4 on the day, dropped a perfect two strike bunt down the third base line . . . Belanger had scored and Blair had crossed first base before catcher John Roseboro picked up the ball . . . It was a completely unexpected ending to a game that had produced four home runs yet was decided by a base hit that traveled only 22 feet.

Boog Powell made it all possible with a lead off homer in the 9th off Jim Perry that tied the score 3-3.

After Mike Cuellar came out for a pinch hitter in the 8th, Richert blanked the Twins in the 9th and Ed Watt retired the side in order in the 10th and 11th. The O's threatened in the 11th on singles by Powell and Brooks (his fourth of the day), but Perranoski worked out of the jam.

Marcelino Lopez started the 12th and loaded the bases with one out. Dick Hall then came on, fanned Leo Cardenas and got Roseboro on a fly ball to end the inning.

The O's had jumped ahead twice earlier . . . Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer off the left field foul pole made it 1-0, but a sacrifice fly by Bob Allison, following an Oliva double and an error by Frank, tied it in the 5th . . . Belanger's solo shot in the bottom of the 5th produced a 2-1 edge, but then Oliva hit a two run blast off Cuellar in the 7th to put the Twins up 3-2, which is where it stood until Powell tied it in the 9th.

BOSWELL (L), Perranoski (11); McNALLY (W).

HRs: None Time: 3:17 Attendance: 44,339

Twenty game winners Dave McNally and Dave Boswell dominated the second game . . . McNally yielded only three hits while going the route and Boswell was brilliant in the clutch while yielding seven hits before Perranoski relieved him with two down in the 11th.

Curt Motton's lined shot to right off Perranoski just over leaping Rod Carew's glove scored Powell from second with the winning run, but only after Oliva's throw short hopped past Twins catcher Mitterwald just as Boog hustled past. Boswell had walked Powell to open the inning . . . Brooks sacrificed Boog to second, Johnson was purposely passed, then Belanger popped up for out number two. Manager Weaver sent up Hendricks to hit for Etchebarren but when Billy Martin brought in Perranoski, Earl countered with Motton.

McNally didn't yield a hit after the 4th inning. In the 10th he fanned the side to run his game total to 11. In the Twins 11th, however, after retiring the first two hitters, Dave suddenly walked both Killebrew and Oliva. But Dave got Allison on a fly ball and the Birds then went on to win in their half of the inning.

PALMER (W); MILLER (L), Woodson (2), T. Hall (4), Worthington (5), Grzenda (6), Chance (7), Perranoski (9).

HR: Blair Time: 2:48 Attendance: 32,735

Back home in Metropolitan Stadium after losing two tough extra inning games in Baltimore, the Twins broke on top with a run in the 1st off Jim Palmer when Oliva doubled and later scored on a Rich Reese single . . . After that it was all Orioles, mostly Blair and Buford with an assist from Hendricks . . . Lead off man Buford was 4-for-5 with a walk, three runs and one rbi . . . Blair went 5-for-6 including two doubles and a home run, and drove in five runs while Hendricks, who put the Birds ahead to stay in the 2nd with a two run double, wound up with three rbi on two hits.

While Palmer was going the route spacing 10 hits, the Birds knocked Bob Miller out in the 2nd after he had yielded three runs (only one earned thanks to a dropped fly ball by Oliva), then the Twins paraded in six more pitchers, concluding for the third straight day with Perranoski.

A pitchers duel between 24-game winners Mike Cuellar and Jim Perry never materialized amid a 23 mph wind and 57° temperature. With the score tied at two in the 4th inning Cuellar highlighted a seven run outburst with a wind blown grand slam that was unquestionably foul when it left the bat, then acquired distance and direction and curled around the foul pole in right. Don Buford followed immediately with another home run that kayoed Perry. Boog Powell wound up the scoring that inning with still another four bagger, off reliever Bill Zepp, to give the Birds a 9-2 lead.

But it wasn't Cuellar's day on the mound either. The Twins scored one in the home 4th, then rallied in the 5th for three more on a Killebrew homer (437') and a two run single by George Mitterwald. At this point with just one out, Manager Weaver summoned Dick Hall who forced second baseman Danny Thompson into an inning ending double play grounder.

Powell's 7th inning single provided the game's only other run while 40-year old Hall finished up allowing just one hit—a single by Tony Oliva—over a scoreless four and two-third inning stint. He fanned three and walked none. Hall was ably assisted by Paul Blair who made a great long running catch with his back to the plate on Brant Alyea's 430-foot drive to deepest center after Oliva's safety in the 7th.

Brooks Robinson was 3-for-3 with a double and a sac fly . . . An umpire strike brought veteran umpires John Stevens and Charlie Berry out of retirement and, to fill out the staff, two young umpires, Bill Deegan (Southern League) and Darold Satchell (International League), were drafted . . . Stevens called balls and strikes . . . Perry was charged with eight runs (seven earned) in three and one-third innings.

In one of the closest 11-3 games ever played, the Birds and Dave McNally protected a one run lead (4-3) from the 4th thru the 8th then staged their second seven run inning in two days, in the 9th, to ice it.

The Orioles jumped out to a 4-0 lead after three and one-half innings . . . A 1st inning double by Powell, a two run homer by Frank Robinson in the 3rd and McNally's single in the 4th provided the early scoring off starter Tom Hall.

However, after McNally walked lead off man Leo Cardenas in the 4th, he yielded successive bombs to Killebrew and Oliva and with none out the Baltimore lead had been trimmed to one. McNally then retired the side in order and despite frequent trouble (Twins had at least one runner in each inning from the 5th thru the 9th) he blanked Minnesota the rest of the way.

A clutch play by Merv Rettenmund kept the Twins from tieing it in the 5th. McNally issued a one out walk to Stan Williams (the third Twins pitcher), then Cesar Tovar and Cardenas singled. When Williams tried to score from second on Cardenas' safety, Rettenmund nipped him at the plate with a perfect strike to Andy Etchebarren. McNally followed by getting Killebrew on a pop up to end the inning.

In the 8th, an inning before the O's big outburst, Ron Perranoski came in to pitch (his fifth appearance in as many ALCS games over two years). Operating on intelligence information picked up the day before from Jim Frey and Eddie Watt, Weaver requested that plate umpire Tom Haller (the strike had been settled before the game and the regular arbiters returned to work) inspect the vet reliefer's pitching hand. Haller found evidence of an illegal foreign substance and ordered Perranoski to the clubhouse for a thorough cleansing . . . When Perranoski returned, he gave up a lead off single to Brooks and a couple of other hard hit balls but retired the side without damage.

In the 9th, however, Perranoski's year long success against the O's ended abruptly (credited with 34 saves and seven wins in the regular season overall, he was 2-0 with three saves while pitching 15⅓ scoreless innings vs. Baltimore) . . . In the seven run 9th, he was blasted for five of the Orioles tallies.

A two run double by Powell and Johnson's three run homer were the key blows in the big uprising.

1970 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES REVIEW

Whereas the first two games of the ALCS seemed much closer than the final scores of 10-6 and 11-3, game three was rarely in doubt. Jim Palmer, who has now pitched complete game victories to clinch all three of the Orioles' American League titles ('66, '69 and '70), scattered seven hits and three walks while striking out 12.

The Birds started fast and by the end of three innings led 5-0. Buford greeted starter Jim Kaat with a lead off single in the 1st and scored two outs later on a Powell single. In the 2nd, center fielder Jim Holt failed to catch Palmer's fly ball and it dropped for a two base error; then Buford doubled over Tovar's head in left to score Palmer . . . In the 3rd, Brooks opened with a double—the second of his three hits—went to third on a single by Johnson and scored on a grounder to short, but only after he had jostled Cardenas' throw to the plate out of catcher Paul Ratliff's possession. The Birds' final run resulted from a 7th-inning homer by Johnson off Perry, the Twins fourth and final pitcher.

Although it was a Monday afternoon, the third game crowd of 27,608 was better than either of the weekend crowds in Minnesota . . . The Orioles did not commit an error in the three games while the Twins were charged with six.

Vida Blue, the A's Cy Young Award winner and principal secret weapon, led 3-0 after three and one-half innings and was still ahead by 3-1 when the Birds erupted for four runs in the home 7th to win the first game of the 1971 ALCS in a come from behind thriller.

Curt Motton, who two years earlier had won game two of the ALCS against Minnesota with an 11th inning single, delivered a clutch two out double off Blue (batting for McNally in the 7th) that tied the game, then Paul Blair followed with another two base hit that drove in both the winning run and an insurance tally.

Blue had only one bad inning thru the first six. That was in the 4th when he allowed three hits (the only safeties the Birds had until the 7th) and two of these, back to back doubles by Dave Johnson and Merv Rettenmund, produced the O's first run. In only one other inning thru the 6th did he even allow a base runner.

Eddie Watt, who finished up for McNally, yielded lead off safeties in both innings he worked but pitched out of trouble both times and finished with a flourish in the 9th when, with none out and Bando on first, he forced Mangual to bounce into a double play, then fanned pinch hitter Mike Epstein for the final out.

Four home runs, including two by Boog Powell, off the A's Jim Hunter accounted for all five Orioles runs while Mike Cuellar scattered six Oakland hits to put the Birds two up in the '71 ALCS.

Despite a painful wrist injury, aggravated the previous day, Boog drove in three runs with his two circuit shots, both to deep right-center. The A's scored their only run in the 4th on Sal Bando's double and a run scoring single by Dave Duncan. Brooks Robinson and Elrod Hendricks also found the range off Hunter.

Though three Oakland homers, two by Reggie Jackson, kept the A's in the ballgame until the end, Palmer turned on the gas in the 9th and fanned the side in order (Tenace, Hegan, Blefary) to nail down Baltimore's fourth pennant in six years.

A's Manager Dick Williams chose Diego Segui to start game three. His two aces, Vida Blue and Jim Hunter had already pitched, and 15-game winner Chuck Dobson was unavailable because of injury. Segui loaded the bases in the very 1st inning but held the O's to a single run on a sacrifice fly by Ellie Hendricks.

Jackson's first home run tied the game at one-all in the 3rd. Then in the 5th Brooks Robinson's two run single with the bases loaded put the O's ahead to stay and Segui shortly departed. Bando's homer in the 6th cut the lead to one (3-2), but the O's scored twice more in the 7th on an rbi double by Frank Robinson and another on a Darold Knowles wild pitch and now led 5-2.

It was, of course, the third straight three game sweep of the ALCS by the Oriôles since that annual event was inaugurated in 1969.

A brilliant relief pitching effort by Moe Drabowsky and 1st inning home runs by Frank and Brooks Robinson carried the Orioles to victory at Dodger Stadium. With one out in the 1st, Dodger starter Don Drysdale walked Russ Snyder and Frank immediately followed with a home run to left. Brooks Robinson was the next batter and he also homered to give the Orioles a quick 3-0 lead . . . Snyder singled another run across in the 2nd . . . The Birds' Dave McNally, working on a 4-1 lead after a 2nd inning homer by Jim Lefebvre, lost control and loaded the bases on walks with one out in the 3rd.

Drabowsky came on at that point and, after a strikeout, walked Junior Gilliam to force in the Dodgers second run of the game (and last of the series). Working the final six and two-third innings, Moe yielded just one hit and set a series record by fanning 11. He tied another record with six straight strikeouts in the 5th and 6th innings.

Jim Palmer, nine days short of his 21st birthday, became the youngest pitcher in World Series history to toss a shutout as the Orioles moved two up in the Series. A shoddy Dodger defense that committed six errors (including three in one inning by center fielder Willie Davis) aided the Oriole victory, but the day belonged to Palmer. The strong armed right-hander struck out six and walked three as he stopped the Dodgers cold. The Orioles broke a scoreless deadlock in the 5th inning with three tallies, mainly because Davis dropped two fly balls and was charged with a throwing error. The Orioles added another run in the 6th and two more in the 8th to wrap up the game. The losing pitcher was the incomparable Sandy Koufax, appearing in his final game with the Dodgers. Dave Johnson, with a 6th inning single, earned the distinction of getting the final hit off Koufax.

The Orioles extended their series lead to three games as Paul Blair and Wally Bunker teamed up to give the Orioles the win. Blair belted a 430-foot home run to left-center in the 5th inning to account for the game's only run while Bunker, bothered much of the year by a sore right elbow, fanned six and walked only one. Fine defensive plays by left fielder Curt Blefary and shortstop Luis Aparicio eased Bunker's path to victory. Dodger southpaw Claude Osteen, who suffered the loss, pitched very well as he gave up just three hits and a walk in the seven innings he worked.

The Orioles became World Champions by defeating the Dodgers in four straight as Dave McNally's arm and Frank Robinson's bat brought the series to an end. McNally, who started the first game and failed to last through the 3rd inning, was brilliant as he retired the Dodgers in order in seven of the nine frames. Robinson, who homered in the 1st inning of the first game off Don Drysdale, did it again in this game when he unloaded a 4th inning shot deep into the left field seats. The blow not only won the game but earned him the series mvp award. McNally's pitching stretched to 33 the number of consecutive innings in which the Dodgers were held scoreless. Two great plays by the center fielders highlighted the defensive phase of the game. In the 4th frame, Willie Davis leaped high against the center field fence and snared a drive off Boog Powell's bat that was over the top of the barrier. In the 8th inning, Blair, who entered the game as a defensive replacement at the start of the inning, ran to the fence in left-center and jumped to make a great catch on a ball hit by Jim Lefebvre that appeared to be a home run.

McNally, who had allowed just three hits in eight innings, retired the first two hitters in the 9th, but then Charles, Jerry Grote and Weis singled in succession to put the Mets up 2-1 . . . This was Tommy Agee's day . . . The Mets' center fielder homered leading off for the Mets in the 1st inning, then made two great catches that deprived the Orioles of at least five runs . . . With the Mets ahead 3-0 in the 4th the Birds had runners on first and third with two out when Hendricks slashed a drive to deep left-center, seemingly good for at least two bases and two rbi, but Agee reached the ball at the last instant and made a great backhanded catch after a long run to the fence.

In the 7th the Mets led 4-0, when, after two were out, Gary Gentry walked the bases loaded and was pulled in favor of Nolan Ryan. Blair with a two strike count sent a drive into right-center that figured to clear the bases, but Agee reached it after another long run, caught it low, then slid across the grass on his belly. The Birds loaded the bases in the 9th also, but Ryan fanned Blair to end it.

Plate umpire Shag Crawford made history of sorts in game four and so did Ron Swoboda . . . The Mets led 1-0 on Clendenon's second series homer at the start of the 3rd when Crawford strode toward the Orioles' dugout and pointed a menacing finger . . . Manager Weaver then walked to the plate as Crawford returned to his position, and at that point the latter thumbed him out of the game . . . It was only the third time in series history that a manager had been ejected, and the first such incident since 1935.

Swoboda's magnificent contribution to world series lore occurred, ironically, on the play that enabled the Birds to score their only run of the game. Seaver had held the O's to three hits over eight innings and still led 1-0 into the 9th. With one out, however, Frank singled and went to third on Boog's safety to right. Brooks then lined a shot to right that appeared headed into the slot. At very worst the Birds figured to tie it up with runners on second and third, but Swoboda made a miraculous headlong backhanded diving catch inches off the grass that must rank with the great series plays of all time . . . Frank scored from third on the sacrifice fly, but that was all the scoring the Birds could muster.

Ed Watt who came on in the 8th yielded two hits in the 9th but worked out of the jam forcing the game into extra innings . . . The O's threatened but didn't score in the 10th . . . In the home half, Dick Hall yielded a lead off double to Grote . . . Weis was intentionally passed and Pete Richert came on to face J. C. Martin, batting for Seaver . . . Martin dropped a bunt down the first base line; Richert fielded it but his throw hit Martin in the back and rolled into right field, allowing Gaspar (running for Grote) to score the winning run from second. Subsequent photos showed that Martin was running out of the three foot lane during that last 45-foot stretch to first when the ball hit him, but umpire Crawford did not see it that way.

The Orioles jumped to a 3-0 lead in the 3rd on McNally's two run homer and a solo shot by Frank. In the 6th, the O's still led 3-0 when Frank appeared to have been hit with a pitch, but plate umpire Lou DiMuro ruled that the ball had hit Frank's bat first . . . A substantial argument followed . . . In the bottom of the same inning, Cleon Jones claimed to have been hit on the foot by McNally. DiMuro again said no, but moments later Gil Hodges ran out of the dugout with a ball bearing a shoe polish stain. DiMuro relented and sent Jones to first (movies later vindicated DiMuro's judgment on the Jones incident) . . . When Clendenon followed with his third homer of the series, the score was 3-2.

Light hitting Weis then hit his first homer ever in Shea Stadium to tie the score in the 7th . . . The Mets won it all in the 8th . . . With Watt pitching, Jones opened the inning with a double and one out later scored the ultimate winning run on Swoboda's two baser . . . The Mets then scored an insurance run with two out on errors by Powell and Watt.

In game one the Reds established a pattern they followed in four of the five games . . . taking the early lead . . . With Palmer on the hill for Baltimore, the Reds scored once in the 1st on Johnny Bench's two out single . . . The lead ballooned to 3-0 on Lee May's 3rd inning home run. Meanwhile, Gary Nolan set the O's down in order in the first three innings.

However, Boog Powell homered deep into the left field stands in the 4th following a Paul Blair single to reduce the home team's advantage to one. Then Ellie Hendricks reduced it to zero with a game tieing swat to right to lead off inning 5.

Perhaps the most exciting and significant inning of the entire World Series was the Cincinnati 6th . . . First, Lee May, who had homered and singled off Palmer earlier, led off by rifling a ground shot one hop over the bag at third bound for extra bases; but Brooks made a miraculous stop and while his momentum carried him into foul territory, he somehow stopped and threw almost blindly to first without really turning his body. His throw took a perfect astro turf hop right into the stretching Powell's glove and nailed May by a step. The importance of the play soon became apparent.

Palmer then walked Bernie Carbo and gave up a single to Tommy Helms that sent Carbo to third. Ty Cline came in to hit for shortstop Woody Woodward, but succeeded only in hitting a dribbler that bounced high in front of the plate . . . Hendricks stepped out to grab it. Umpire Ken Burkhart also went out to position himself to call it fair or foul and surprise, surprise, Carbo was coming from third . . . Carbo came in on the foul side of the line, Hendricks dove at him from the fair side and both made contact with Burkhart, who ended up sitting down with his back to the plate. There was no question that Hendricks tagged the runner with his gloved hand, but the ball was in the other and subsequent photos and film proved that Carbo didn't touch the plate on the way in . . . Burkhart called the runner out. A vehement argument ensued.

The score was still tied at three when Brooks hit a 7th inning home run off Nolan and that was to be the clincher . . . In the 9th Palmer fanned pinch hitters Jimmy Stewart and Angel Bravo to open the inning, his first two strikeouts of the game . . . However, he then lost Rose on a walk, and Earl Weaver went to Richert to pitch to Tolan . . . It took Pete one pitch to dispose of the Reds center fielder on a soft liner to Mark Belanger and the Birds led the series 1-0.

The Reds jumped away with three unearned runs in the 1st off Mike Cuellar.

In the 3rd, Tolan homered to make it 4-0. After Cuellar walked Johnny Bench, Tom Phoebus replaced him and faced May who bid for another hit with a smash to the hole but Brooks fell to his knees, came up with the screamer, whirled quickly in a clockwise turn and started a brilliant double play to end the Reds threat.

The Orioles got one back on Powell's second series homer in the 4th, then took command in the 5th . . . They scored five times on six hits while sending nine men to the plate . . . The big blows were Brooks' game tieing single and Ellie Hendricks' two run double down the left field line that put the O's ahead to stay.

Bench led off with a homer in the 6th to narrow the Orioles lead to one . . . In the 7th Marcelino Lopez came on to face lefty Tolan with the tieing and lead runs on and got him on a pop to Brooks. Then Hall was summoned and he retired the side on Perez's force out grounder.

Hall, a hero in the first game of the playoffs, played the role again here. He put down Cincinnati in order in both the 8th and 9th to preserve the 6-5 win, but again Blair, who had made a sensational catch on Brant Alyea's long drive in the championship for a key out with Hall on the mound, contributed his golden defensive skills . . . Pinch hitter Stewart with two down in the 9th hit a drive with unaccustomed power (one homer in regular season), Blair raced to the center field fence with his back to the plate and hauled it in over his shoulder . . . Two games to none!

This was the only series game in which the Orioles never trailed. Dave McNally went the route, scattered nine hits, and in the 6th inning with the O's ahead 4-1, two outs and the bases loaded, became the only pitcher ever to hit a grand slam in world series competition when he blasted a Wayne Granger offering into the left field seats.

Brooks got the O's off on the right track in the 1st when he doubled over two runs against starter Tony Cloninger . . . Frank, who had been 0-for-9 in the series until he singled first time up in this game, came back in the 3rd with a solo homer and Buford also contributed a bases empty shot in the 5th . . . Cloninger left after five and one-third innings charged with six hits and five runs.

Brooks, aside from two doubles and two rbi, also contributed a sparkling diving grab to his left of a Johnny Bench liner in the 6th. Dave Johnson in the 3rd likewise robbed Rose of a single with a diving backhand catch of a sharp line drive . . . Frank and Blair each added three hits and an rbi.

With the Reds trailing 5-3 and just two innings from total annihilation in four straight, Lee May blasted reliever Eddie Watt's first pitch into the left field seats with two aboard to give the "BRM" their only series win, 6-5.

The Reds scored first in the 2nd on Dave Concepcion's triple, but Brooks countered with a lead off homer, the first of four hits for him that day, in the bottom of the same frame.

Lee May singled home another run in the 3rd, but again the O's counter attacked, this time with three runs, giving the Birds a 4-2 lead.

Rose's 5th inning homer reduced the margin to one, but the Cincinnati hustler's fumble of Hendricks' 6th inning single allowed Brooks to cross with Baltimore run number five.

Palmer, who had retired eight of the next nine hitters following Rose's homer, suddenly weakened in the 8th . . . He opened with a walk to Perez, then gave up a single to Bench, and at that point Watt entered and yielded the first pitch blast by May.

It was a wet and gloomy day in Baltimore, particularly after the Reds jumped Cuellar for three runs and four hits (including three doubles) in the top of the 1st. But the day belonged to the Orioles, weather or no.

In the bottom of the opening inning Blair singled, the first of his three hits that made him the series' top hitter at .474, then Frank followed with a home run . . . score 2-3 . . . In the 2nd the tide turned completely. With two out and two on, 20-game winner Jim Merritt exited in favor of Granger. Belanger greeted him with a base hit that scored the tieing run and Blair came right behind with another single that drove in the ultimate clincher.

Cuellar, after McRae had doubled in two runs to give the Reds their early 3-0 lead, pitched near perfect baseball . . . He retired 24 of the last 27 hitters and was never again in serious trouble.

The top of the 9th provided a fitting climax to the Brooks Robinson story. Bench, the first man to bat, lined a shot just foul of third base but not too foul for Brooks to grab it with a hearty lunge. Then after Cuellar fanned May, pinch hitter Pat Corrales (the only player who had not seen action for Cincinnati in the series) sent a routine bounder to third and Brooks threw easily to Powell for all the marbles.

Earlier the fans in the stands had shown their appreciation for the great individual performance given by the O's third baseman . . . After taking a third strike his last time up in the 8th, he received a long standing ovation all the way back to the dugout.

After being rained out in Memorial Stadium on Sunday, the series continued on Monday afternoon (14 regular season games plus the first game of the championship series against Oakland had earlier been victimized by weather).

While the O's scored all their runs on homers in game one, this day they hit nothing but singles, 14 of them, and aided by seven walks and an error scored 10 times in the middle three innings to take an 11-0 lead. Brooks Robinson with three hits and two walks tied a world series record for reaching base while driving in three runs and contributing a typical defensive gem—a diving stop of Manny Sanguillen's lead off grounder in the 8th, followed by a strike to Boog Powell to nip the fleet Pirate catcher at first.

Merv Rettenmund also tied a series mark with two hits in one inning, the six run 5th, and Jim Palmer picked up two rbi with a pair of bases loaded walks. Bob Johnson, the first of six Pirate hurlers, was the loser.

Palmer, who yielded seven hits and eight walks, and threw 168 pitches, came out after eight innings. Richie Hebner's three run homer in the 8th cost Palmer his shutout—Jim struck out 10. Dick Hall picked up a save with a scoreless 9th.

The first world series night game ever played (after 397 day games) drew a record baseball crowd for Pittsburgh and the largest TV audience ever for a baseball event, an estimated 62,330,000.

The game, itself, was decided by a pair of 21-year old Pirates: Bruce Kison and Milt May. Kison, who relieved starter Luke Walker in the 1st with the Birds already ahead 3-0, proceeded to pitch six and one-third scoreless innings during which he allowed just one hit and no walks though he did set a series record by plunking three Baltimore batters with pitched balls.

The Pirates battled back to tie the game in the 3rd off Pat Dobson who had not worked in 15 days, and in the 7th, young May, batting for Kison with two on and two out, singled home Bob Robertson with the tie breaking (and winning) run. Premier reliefer Dave Giusti then retired six straight Orioles over the last two innings to preserve the narrow margin.

Dobson left with one out in the 6th after yielding 10 hits and three walks, but Grant Jackson bailed the Birds out of a tough spot. Watt came on in the 7th and was the victim of singles by Robertson and Sanguillen that preceded May's winning safety.

The most controversial play of the series occurred in the 3rd inning when Clemente, batting with one out and Richie Hebner on first, lined a shot to right field that cleared the inside fence near the foul line. Umpire John Rice who was covering the right field line in this game ruled that it was a foul ball, but to many it appeared to have been fair. After the argument cooled, Clemente singled putting Hebner in position to score the tieing run on Oliver's subsequent single. Later testimony by fans in the disputed home run area as well as by members of the Pirate bullpen confirmed the accuracy of Rice's call.

Frank Robinson's aching legs produced the winning run in the 10th inning to prevent elimination and tie the series at three games apiece. With Bob Miller, the Pirates fourth pitcher, on the mound, Frank drew a walk with one out. Suffering from a painful Achilles tendon injury in his right foot, Frank nevertheless streaked all the way from first to third on Rettenmund's ground single up the middle. Vic Davalillo's throw to third baseman Hebner might have been in time, but Frank dove to the outside of the bag and evaded the tag. Enroute, he pulled a muscle in his left thigh.

Then Brooks hit a 1-2 pitch to medium center. After the catch by Davalillo, Frank came home and slid over safely as Davalillo's two bounce throw hopped high forcing Manny Sanguillen to go up in the air after it.

This dramatic finish concluded an uphill battle for the Birds in this "must" game. Robertson's 2nd inning single following an Al Oliver double and Roberto Clemente's homer in the 3rd gave the Pirates an early 2-0 lead off Jim Palmer. Don Buford led off in the O's 1st with a single, but it wasn't until Brooks singled in the 5th that the Birds hit safely again off starter Bob Moose (thru five innings of this game, the Birds had not scored in 22 straight innings and had managed just four hits in 21).

Buford hit a solo homer in the 6th to put the Birds on the board. Then the O's tied in the 7th when Dave Johnson singled off Giusti to score Belanger.

Palmer, meanwhile, had settled down and pitched shutout ball from the 4th thru the 9th. He was pitching so effectively that manager Weaver declined to pinch hit for him in two threat situations in the 4th and 7th innings.

The Orioles threatened off Giusti in the 9th but didn't score.

Dobson came on to pitch the 10th and with one out Cash singled and stole second while Richie Hebner fanned. The O's walked Clemente on purpose, then Dave McNally, who had started the fifth game, came out of the bullpen to make his first relief appearance since July 19, 1969, to face the lefthand hitting Willie Stargell. Dave walked the major league's home run champion, but got Al Oliver, also a southpaw, to fly out to center to end the inning and set the stage for Frank's base running heroics.

While Steve Blass went the route limiting the Orioles to four hits and a single run, Mike Cuellar pitched almost as well. Thru the eight innings Mike worked, he too yielded just four base hits, but a home run by Roberto Clemente in the 4th after Cuellar had retired all 11 previous Pittsburgh hitters broke the ice, and then in the 8th, a single by Willie Stargell, followed by Pagan's hit and run double that scored Stargell all the way from first, gave the Pirates a 2-0 lead.

In the first seven innings, the Birds nicked Blass for two harmless safeties. In the home half of the 8th, down by two, the Birds finally scored. Hendricks opened with a single thru shortstop then Belanger looped a single to center. With none out Tom Shopay batted for Cuellar and sacrificed the runners to second and third. When Buford bounced to Bob Robertson at first, Hendricks scored. But with the tieing run on third, Blass retired Dave Johnson to end the inning.

Blass was up to the final challenge in the 9th and set down Boog Powell, Frank Robinson, and Merv Rettenmund in order to give Pittsburgh its fourth world championship in six world series. All four Pirate series wins have been in seven games.

MAGIC NUMBER

To calculate: Determine number of games to be played by first place club . . . Add 1 . . . Subtract the number of games first place club is ahead of second place club in the all-important lost column (AILC). The result represents the magic number . . . Example: If first team has 20 games to play and is six games ahead of second team . . . 20+1=21 . . . 21—6=15 . . . 15 is the magic number.

When, in any combination, first team wins added to second team losses equal the magic number, first team has clinched the championship . . . From another angle—with each subsequent first team win or second team loss, the magic number is decreased by one . . . When the "M.N." is down to one, first team has clinched a tie, when it is reduced to zero, first team has won the title.

'73 CS/WS DATES

The American and National League Championship Series are tentatively scheduled to begin on Saturday, October 6th . . . Games one and two are to be played in the city of the American League East and National League West winners, then the site will shift for game three (and four and five, if necessary) to the A.L. West and N.L. East winners' ballparks on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, October 8, 9 and 10 (unless a travel day on Monday sets the schedule back one day).

The World Series will open in the American League city on Saturday, October 13, and Sunday, October 14 . . . Following a day of travel, Monday, October 15, the series would then resume in the National League city for games 3, 4, and 5 on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, October 16, 17 and 18 . . . After another travel day (Friday, October 19), games six and seven (if necessary) would be played on Saturday and Sunday, October 20 and 21 in the American League Champion's stadium.

Born in St. Louis, Mo., now makes home in Baltimore . . . Has managed Orioles to three American League pennants, plus one world championship, in four full years on the job . . . O's have compiled 446-272 record (.621 percentage) since he was named manager July 11, 1968, succeeding Hank Bauer . . . His club's total of 318 wins during the 1969-70-71 seasons established an A.L. record for most victories in three consecutive seasons, surpassing the previous mark (313) set by the 1929-30-31 Philadelphia A's.

His clubs have never lost a game in American League championship series competition, winning nine straight over three seasons . . . Despite success, has never been named "Manager of the Year" . . . Considered excellent strategist.

Served as first base coach for Orioles in first half of 1968 season, after spending 11 years honing skills as manager in Orioles farm system . . . Compiled an excellent record as his clubs won three pennants and finished second five times . . . Flag winners were at Appleton (1960) in the Three-I League, Elmira (1964) in the Eastern League and Rochester (1966) in the International League.

Since his first full season as a manager in 1957, Earl has finished in the first division 19 times in 21 tries (including five winter league teams) . . . From 1960 to the present, he has skippered 19 teams and finished either first or second with 17 of them.

Started pro career in 1948 as an infielder in the Cardinals' chain . . . Signed to first contract by Walter Shannon, former scouting director for the Orioles . . . Never played in the majors but went to spring training with the Cardinals in 1952 . . . Primarily a second baseman . . . Played on pennant winning teams in each of his first four years . . . Led leagues in fielding in all but two seasons during playing career.

Most valuable player in three different leagues: West Frankfort, Illinois State League (1948), St. Joseph, Western Association (1949) and Omaha, Western League (1951) . . . Named to all star teams five times during playing career . . . Got start as manager with Knoxville (Sally League) in 1956 when he ran club for last several weeks of season . . . Managed Santurce in Puerto Rican League during winters of 1966-67 and 1967-68 . . . Won post season playoffs the first year and pennant the second year.

Graduate of Beaumont High School in St. Louis . . . Golfing and gardening enthusiast . . . He and his wife, Marianna, live in the Perry Hall section of Baltimore County.

ORIOLES ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE NOTES: In '72 the Orioles dropped below one million paid at home for the first time in four years (since '68) . . . The biggest crowd of the year at Memorial Stadium was 43,851 for a "tee shirt nite" game against the Texas Rangers on 7/7 (Friday) . . . The second largest was 39,714 for a "ball nite" attraction against Cleveland on 5/27 (Saturday).

On the road the Orioles drew 1,265,353. It was the seventh straight time the Birds have pulled more than 1,100,000 away from home. The Orioles nine dates in Tiger Stadium drew 302,567, the largest attendance in the Birds' history for a season series on the road . . . One four game (four date) set in Detroit on 6/30 and 7/1-2-3 attracted 170,335, a club record for any series either home or road.

Rainouts were again numerous in Baltimore in '72. Eight dates (including the delayed opening day) were rained out, all before the all star game. The year before 14 home games were postponed by rain plus one championship series and one world series game. The Orioles have experienced 22 regular season postponements at home in the past two years, plus five on the road (but only one last year).

*Contract selected for $12,000 in major league draft (first year player rule) from Syracuse roster (Mets) on 11/26/62.

Born in Cushing, Okla., raised in Los Angeles, and now makes his home in Baltimore.

1972 Season: Mired in slump most of last season, but hit .277 (46-for-166) over last two months of campaign to raise average 24 points from .209 to .233 . . . During 12-for-26 (.462) spree from Sept. 18 to 27, he picked up seven extra base hits including five doubles . . . Led club with eight triples as he did in '71 . . . Hit three homers against Detroit, two off Mickey Lolich and one off Woodie Fryman . . . Tied Brooks Robinson for club lead with seven sacrifice flies . . . Tossed out of July 17 game vs. Texas by Don Denkinger . . . First ejection in eight year career with O's . . . Received fourth straight (and fifth in six years) "gold glove" award for his defensive excellence in center field by vote of A.L. coaches and managers.

Career: Most productive year in big league career was 1969 when he set personal highs in home runs (26) and rbi (76) . . . Hit over .300 in three of his four seasons in the minors including .329 for Rochester in '65, but has never quite reached that figure in the majors . . . Hit .293 in '67, and came close again in '69 when a 3-for-38 slump in the last nine games brought his average down to a final .285 . . . Chosen to play in all star game in '69 and was selected to The Sporting News A.L. All Star team . . . Suffered serious eye and facial injuries and spent three weeks on the disabled list after he was struck by a Ken Tatum pitch in game against California in May of '70.

Belted three home runs vs. Chicago on 4/29/70 to join Boog Powell and Curt Blefary as only O's ever to have accomplished that feat . . . Has hit two home runs in a game five times (3 at home) . . . Missed most of spring training in '68 because of severe ankle injury sustained in Puerto Rico the previous December . . . Experimented with batting lefthanded in early part of '71 and singled first two times up hitting from the left side on opening day off Casey Cox, but diminishing returns soon set in and he abandoned the project several weeks later . . . Has hit one grand slam—in Milwaukee on 6/5/71 off Jim Slaton.

ALCS/WS: Had only one hit in the '66 world series, but it was a 430' home run that won the third game against the Dodgers, 1-0 . . . In game four that year he made a fine leaping catch of Jim Lefebvre's 8th inning drive that would have tied the score at 1-1 if Paul hadn't caught up to it . . . That was the game in which O's captured the world championship with another 1-0 victory . . . Was leading hitter in '70 series with .474 average (9-for-19) and tied record for most hits in a five game series.

His surprise 22 foot bunt in the 12th inning with two strikes, two outs and Mark Belanger on third won the first ALCS game ever played back in '69 vs. the Twins . . . He was 0-for-4 on the day and 3-for-42 at the time . . . In the third game of the same championship series which the Orioles swept, Paul went 5-for-6 with a home run, two doubles and five rbi.

Has made at least two other memorable catches in post-season competition, both in '70 . . . One was a back to the plate play on Brant Alyea's 430' drive to deepest center at Metropolitan Stadium in Minnesota in the first game of the championship series, and the other was the same kind of play in the second game of the world series on a long drive by Reds' pinchhitter Jimmy Stewart with two out in the 9th and the Birds ahead by just one run.

Miscellaneous: Outstanding all around athlete at Manual Arts High School in L.A. . . . Originally signed by the Mets . . . Had hit only .228 in his first pro-season in California League and struck out 147 times, but O's were impressed with him and selected him in first year draft the following November . . . On the same day the Birds chose Blair they also selected Curt Motton and Dave May from other organizations . . . Leading scorer in Orioles winter basketball team for fourth straight year . . . Averaged 30 points per game . . . In one game two winters ago, he tallied 51 points.

BIRD'S BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December, 1954 the Orioles and Yankees engineered a 17 player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter, and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridley . . . The Birds in turn acquired the contracts of: pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

Born in La Puente, Calif. and grew up there . . . Now lives in nearby Hacienda Heights, Calif.

1972 Season: Did not hit well in '72 except when O's played Tigers . . . Batted .342 (12-for-35) vs. Detroit . . . His two homers were against two of the top lefties in league: Mickey Lolich and Fritz Peterson . . . Home run off Peterson was three-run swat that tied game in 7th, and O's went on to win 4-3 on 9/4 . . . Ejected from 7/22 game vs. Royals by plate umpire Bill Haller after complaining of calls.

Career: Best year in majors was '71 when he hit .270 with nine home runs. In last several years has been platooned against lefthanded pitchers . . . Was Birds number one catcher as a rookie in '66 after Dick Brown was stricken in the spring with brain tumor . . . Caught 85 of O's first 93 games that year, but then sustained broken hand . . . Recovered in time to catch every inning of '66 world series . . . '66 season was most productive from standpoint of homers (11) and rbi (50) . . . Named to A.L. All Star team in '66 and '67, but did not appear in either game.

Broke up longest game (by innings) in Orioles history when he homered in 19th inning to beat Senators on 6/4/67 at Memorial Stadium.

Miscellaneous/Personal: Signed large bonus contract . . . Jim Wilson and Fred Hofmann were primarily responsible for Andy joining Orioles organization . . . Of French-Basque descent . . . Has financial interest in business in Hacienda Heights . . . Excellent golfer . . . He and his wife, Aggie (Agnes) were married 1/13/62, and are the parents of two daughters: Kim (1/17/64) and Lisa (12/1/65).

Born in Bethesda, Md., but family moved to San Diego when he was six months old . . . Set all time home run record for Orioles farmhands when he hit 34 in '72 . . . Hit 11 for Rochester, then added 23 more after moving down to Asheville in early June . . . Hit 33 homers the previous year at Miami to tie a Florida State League record . . . Also paced the FSL in rbi, runs, hits, doubles and total bases and was named "mvp" in that league . . . Hit 21 out of Miami Stadium in '72 to set a record . . . Last year in Orioles spring training, he hit a 450 footer in Miami . . . It was the only home run hit by an Oriole in the first nine exhibition games.

Biggest problem is high strikeout frequency . . . Nicknamed "Cheyenne" after tv character because of large stature and quiet nature . . . Health food advocate . . . Brother, Tom, one year older, was a catcher in White Sox organization . . . Originally drafted by Dodgers in the summer of 1969 . . . Ultimately signed with Baltimore organization by Birds' present west coast scouting supervisor, Ray Poitevint . . . Has strongest outfield throwing arm in Birds' system . . . Had a mediocre record at Pt. Loma High School in San Diego (.260 avg. senior year), but began attracting scouts attention at San Diego City College . . . Single.

*Signed with Baltimore affiliate as free agent on 6/29/67 . . . selected in 1967 summer draft regular phase (Baltimore's 1st selection).

Born in Muskegon, Mich., but grew up in Long Beach, Calif. and still makes his home there.

1972 Season: Led O's in hitting with .278 average and was second in hits (128), home runs (12) and stolen bases (13) . . . Became a full time starter on May 24 . . . To that point he had played in only 10 of 19 games, but only missed two of the last 135 . . . Played all four infield positions, but saw most action at shortstop . . . Prime position in '73 will be second base . . . Selected by Manager Weaver to A.L. all star team and starting lineup when previously chosen starter Luis Aparicio and Toby Harrah of Rangers were scratched because of injury . . . He played the entire game at short and handled himself well defensively though he went hitless in four plate appearances.

Several of his home runs came in timely spots: defeated Oakland, 2-1, with 10th inning homer on 6/14; beat Boston by same score with 9th inning blast on 8/11; and another home run against Red Sox, in 6th inning, was decisive blow in still another 2-1 O's win on October 1 (which was a must game for Red Sox) . . . Clouted his first major league grand slam off the Twins' Jim Perry on 8/29 in Met Stadium, and drove in a total of five runs in that game . . . Hit .359 (14-for-39) during nine game streak from 7/16 to 27 . . . Collected four hits against Detroit on 7/3 . . . Hit .372 (16-for-43) vs. New York, .364 (16-for-44) against Milwaukee and .355 (11-for-31) vs. Chicago.

Career: An outstanding year at Rochester in '71 earned him a lengthy list of awards . . . "minor league player of the year" by The Sporting News and by Topps Chewing Gum; International League "player of the year" and Rawlings "silver glove" as top fielding shortstop (by percentage) in minors were the principal ones . . . Led International League in hitting (.336), home runs (32) and total bases (299) . . . Recalled from Rochester in September during Wings-Denver Bears Junior World Series to add punch to O's who had lost three straight to second place Tigers (losses had reduced Birds lead to five games) . . . Bob sparked Birds win in Tiger Stadium in his first game (9/19) with three hits, then drove in the winning run with a 9th inning single the next day against New York.

Was leading the International League in hitting with .383 figure in '70, when he was called up to Birds as replacement for injured Clay Dalrymple on 6/29 . . . Sent back to Red Wings in spring of '71 to work on hitting with power . . . Had hit only 22 homers in first pro seasons, then he hit 32 (plus five in playoffs) in '71 at Rochester. Named "most valuable player" in Texas League in '69.

Miscellaneous/Personal: Outstanding baseball and football player at Wilson High in Long Beach . . . Was quarterback and played ahead of Gary Beban who later starred at UCLA . . . Passed up avalanche of college scholarship offers to sign with Orioles . . . Al Kubski and Bobby Mattick were largely responsible for his signing . . . Bob and his wife, the former Marty Johnston, were married on 6/19/71 . . . He attended Fresno State College last winter while she completed her work on a degree in education at the same school.

*Contract selected for $25,000 in major league draft from Seattle roster (Angels) on 11/28/67 . . . sent to Chicago Cubs on 8/18/72 in straight waiver deal for outfielder Tommy Davis . . . reacquired from Cubs on 10/30/72 in exchange for catcher Francisco Estrada.

Born in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, now lives in Randallstown, Md., a Baltimore suburb . . . Was with Orioles last year until August 18 when his contract was dealt to the Chicago Cubs for Tommy Davis in waiver deal. Re-acquired by O's after season was over . . . Sidelined from April 29 until May 23 because of a calcium deposit at the base of neck which resulted in sore right shoulder and numbness in his right hand, and saw limited action with Birds.

Hit two home runs for Cubs and both were in September 1 game against San Diego when he drove in five runs . . . Tied N.L. record with five walks in game against the Mets on September 16.

Played last winter for Frank Robinson at Santurce in Puerto Rican League and was chosen as the Rawlings-The Sporting News P.R. all star catcher . . . Hit 12 homers for Santurce . . . Did not play winter ball after the 1971 season for the first time in his professional career, but did lead the O's in hitting with a .400 (16-for-40) on club's 18 game tour of Japan . . . Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing O's to draft Ellie from Seattle (Angels) roster (P.C.L.) in '67 . . . Played for Weaver in Puerto Rico . . . Smashed 109 homers for Jalisco (Mexican League) from '64 thru '67 . . . Hit grand slam off Chicago's Barry Moore in Memorial Stadium on 7/20/70.

Has .357 average (6-for-17) for three championship series (six games), and .250 mark (10-for-40) in three world series (12 games) . . . Had memorable series vs. Reds in '70 . . . Batted .364 (4-for-11) including homer and double . . . Unloaded home run off Gary Nolan in 5th inning of game one to tie score at 3, and O's went on to win, 4-3 . . . In 2d game his two run double in 5th broke a 4-4 tie and gave O's 6-4 lead . . . Birds ultimately won 6-5 . . . It was in that game also that Ellie, Bernie Carbo and umpire Ken Burkhart were involved in controversial play at plate (see page 41 for details).

He and his wife, Merle, were married 1/14/70, and are the parents of a son, Ryan (8/3/72).

—BIRDS' FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE IN '54—

The modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on April 15, 1954 before a crowd of 46,354 including Vice President Richard M. Nixon who threw out the first ball. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American League game in 52 years.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher. The Birds' starting lineup in that game was: Bobby Young, 2b; Eddie Waitkus, 1b; Gil Coan, cf; Vic Wertz, rf; Sam Mele, lf; Stephens, 3b; Billy Hunter, ss; Courtney, c and Turley, p.

Born in Billings, Mont., but now lives in Lutherville, Md., just north of Baltimore.

1972 Season: Last year for the first time in five seasons Dave failed to win at least 20 games . . . It was his first losing year since '64 . . . Won four of first five decisions in '72 and all four wins were shutouts . . . Finished the campaign with six, a personal high, and now has 25 lifetime, one below Milt Pappas' club record . . . First half performance (10-7) earned him a berth on the A.L. All Star team, but he turned out to be the losing pitcher in the N.L.'s 4-3 win . . . Dave came in to pitch the 10th and with one out and Nate Colbert on second, yielded a tie-breaking game-ending single to Joe Morgan.

Record after the all star break was only 3-10 and he lost seven of last eight decisions. Only win after August 13 was over California, 3-2, on September 1 . . . Best outing of year was against Oakland, June 14 . . . Went 10 innings in 2-1 win over Jim Hunter and allowed just four hits while walking none . . . Beat Texas twice without losing to raise career record to 25-4 against Rangers (nee Senators) including seven shutouts . . . Has beaten that club 15 straight times over last four seasons since last losing to them on September 12, 1968.

Hitting: Hit two homers in '72 (vs. Milwaukee, August 9 and Oakland, August 27) to boost his lifetime total to nine (including grand slam off Oakland's Chuck Dobson) in regular season play (all since start of 1968 season). Also hit two home runs in world series play vs. the Mets in '69 (off Jerry Koosman) and one with bases loaded against the Reds' Wayne Granger . . . This is only grand slam ever hit by a pitcher in a world series.

DAVE McNALLY

Career: Is club's leading all time winner with 148 career victories . . . Has compiled 100-48 record in past five seasons . . . Shares two A.L. pitching records with Johnny Allen of 1937 Cleveland Indians as a result of 17 straight wins from September 22, 1968, thru July 30, 1969: most consecutive wins (17) and most wins at start of season (15) . . . That string ended on August 3, 1969, on Minnesota pinch-hitter Rich Reese's grand slam homer. Put together a 13-game win streak in 1971, despite missing five weeks of that season with strained flexor tendons in left elbow.

In addition to most wins ever by an Orioles pitcher, Dave holds or shares several other club records: most wins, season (24); most starts (40), most strikeouts (202), and lowest era (1.95) . . . Three-time member of American League all star squad ('69-'70-'72) . . . Selected to A.L. all star team by The Sporting News in 1969, and was named "most valuable Oriole" that season as well as being chosen the lefthanded pitcher on the all time Orioles' team.

ALCS/WS: Has performed magnificently in post season play during career . . . Has 4-2 record in four world series, and 3-0 mark in three championship series . . . Defeated Dodgers, 1-0 (on Frank Robinson's homer), in fourth and final game of 1966 World Series . . . Pitched 11-inning, three-hit shutout against Twins in second game of 1969 ALCS and struck out 11 to post 1-0 win over Dave Boswell . . . Lost to Mets, 2-1, in second game of 1969 World Series despite a complete game six hitter. In 1970 he again went the route to beat the Twins in second game of ALCS and protected a one run lead for four innings before O's scored seven times in 9th to put game away . . . Against the Reds that year he won the third game, 9-3.

Won the opening game of the 1971 ALCS against Oakland, 5-3, with help from Eddie Watt in the 8th, then captured two of three decisions in four appearances in the world series against Pittsburgh; won first game with complete game effort, 5-3; lost the fifth game, 4-0, then won game six in relief. Also appeared in relief in game seven.

Miscellaneous: Signed to big bonus contract with Orioles in 1960 by Jim Russo and Jim Wilson after brilliant career in American Legion ball in Billings where high school did not field a team . . . Tossed two-hit shutout against K.C. A's in major league debut on September 26, 1962. Nearly pitched no-hitter against the Twins on May 15, 1969, but Cesar Tovar's one-out ninth-inning single ruined it. He nevertheless wound up with a 5-0 one-hit victory.

Most disappointing year in career was 1967 when, troubled by sore elbow, Dave finished with 7-7 record . . . Excellent golfer . . . He and his wife, Jean, are the parents of three children: Jeff (3/19/63), Pamela (6/15/64), and Susan (9/23/69).

Born in New York City, raised in Los Angeles and Scottsdale, Ariz., but now makes his home in Timonium, Md., a Baltimore suburb.

1972 Season: Won 20 games for the third straight season . . . Led club with 21 wins, 18 complete games, 274 innings, 184 strikeouts and a 2.07 era . . . Won eight straight from May 15 to June 29 when the Yankees beat him, then won five more in a row . . . Put another way, Jim won 13 of 14 decisions over a three month period between a May 11 loss to Texas and an August 10 defeat by the Brewers . . . Allowed no runs or one run in 13 of his complete games . . . Seven times he put an end to club losing streaks of three or more games (five games—once, four games—four times and three games twice).

Reached 100-win level with his final victory on September 24 vs. Milwaukee . . . Third pitcher in club history to reach century mark (others were Dave McNally-148 and Milt Pappas-110) . . . Had 3-0 record vs. Minnesota and was 3-1 vs. Milwaukee and California.

Had a good year at the plate with .224 average and eight rbi, and contributed significantly with the bat to seven of his victories . . . Hit no homers in '72, but has three lifetime.

Career: Has 77-33 record in last four years . . . His career won-lost percentage (.676) is best among active pitchers in either major league . . . Pitched a no-hitter against Oakland on August 13, 1969, just four days after coming off disabled list . . . Five of his 18 career shutouts have come against Cleveland . . . Has made great comeback since back and shoulder miseries nearly ruined his career in 1967 and 1968 . . . From June 8, 1968 until the start of the 1969 season, Jim pitched in only two games for the Birds because of physical problems. During that period he worked briefly with several of O's minor league clubs in attempt to rid himself of these ailments. Came back strong with 16-4 record in 1969, but even that year spent 42 days on disabled list with torn muscle in lower back.

Was signed to bonus contract with Orioles in 1963 by Jim Russo and Jim Wilson . . . Hurled no-hitter for Aberdeen (Northern League) in his first pro-season, 1964 . . . Protected by O's as first year player in 1965 . . . Led O's pennant winners in 1966 with 15 victories.

All Star Games: Started for A.L. in 1972 at Atlanta and pitched one hit ball for three innings while striking out three and walking one . . . Also started for A.L. in 1970 at Cincinnati . . . Has pitched in last three games, and has not allowed a run in eight innings while giving up just three hits . . . He has fanned eight and walked two.

ALCS/WS: The Orioles have won four league championships and Jim has gone the route to win the pennant clincher every time . . . In 1966 he defeated K.C. on September 22 to sew up the title, then won final game in each of the O's three game ALCS sweeps, 1969-70-71.

Jim's world series record is 3-1 . . . He blanked Dodgers, 6-0, in second game in '66 to become youngest pitcher in history to hurl a shutout in series history . . . In that game Sandy Koufax was the loser in his final big league appearance. Also won opening game in '70 vs. Cincinnati and second game in '71 against Pittsburgh. His only loss was to Mets in game three in '69.

Miscellaneous/Personal: Excellent golfer . . . Teamed with ex-Colt Willie Richardson to win Astro-Jet golf tournament in Puerto Rico in '72, then won sports car for best drive in hole-in-one contest . . . Fine all around athlete . . . Was leading rebounder and second highest scorer (behind Blair) on Orioles basketball team last winter (26 point avg.) . . . Actively serves as national sports chairman for Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation . . . Accomplished after dinner speaker . . . Jim and his wife, Susan, were married February 25, 1964, and are the parents of two daughters: Jamie Michelle (11/16/66), and Kelly Christina (6/5/69).

Born in Lakeland, Fla. but moved to Key West during his youth . . . Owns a home in Baltimore, but lives in Miami during the off-season.

1972 Season: Did not start to hit well until late June, but finished as club leader in homers and rbi . . . Batted only .160 (25-for-156) with four home runs and 18 rbi thru June 28 . . . Hit .298 (92-for-309) with 17 homers and 63 rbi after that . . . Smashed 10 home runs and drove in 30 between July 12 and August 12 . . . Knocked in 12 runs in five games between September 11 and 16 . . . Hit .395 (15-for-38) vs. Milwaukee and .333 (10-for-30) vs. Oakland.

Home Runs: All time O's leader with 280 . . . Has hit 115 homers and driven in 408 over the last four seasons . . . Has hit six career grand slams (3 home, 3 away) including two in '72: vs. Chi. at Balto., 8/21/66 (Early Wynn); vs. K.C. at Balto., 7/6/66[2] (Wes Stock); at Minn., 7/26/70 (Dick Woodson); vs. Cleve. at Balto., 9/6/71 (Phil Hennigan); at Cleve., 4/21/72 (Steve Mingori); and at Det., 9/13/72 (Joe Coleman).

Has hit three in a game three times (all on the road): at Wash. on 8/10/63 and 6/27/64, and at Boston on 8/15/66 . . . Has hit two in a game 15 times (5 times at home) . . . Most productive year was '64 when he hit 39 . . . Unloaded home run over right field roof at Tiger Stadium on 7/5/69 . . . Was last to hit "Brooklyn Avenue" at Municipal Stadium in K.C., on 7/21/72 . . . Was first player to hit home run over center field hedge at Memorial Stadium . . . It was a 469' drive off Boston's Don Schwall on 6/22/62 . . . Harmon Killebrew has since hit one into same sector two feet farther.

Honors: Named to A.L. all star team every year between '68 and '71 . . . Selected as starter at first base in '69, '70, and '71, but did not play in '71 game because of wrist injury . . . Is 1-for-9 (.111) in all star competition . . . A.L.'s "most valuable player" in '70 . . . Chosen to A.L. The Sporting News all star team in '66, '68, '69 and '70 . . . Most valuable Oriole selection in '69 and '70 . . . Named A.L. "comeback player of the year" by The Sporting News in '66 . . . Selected to all time favorite Orioles team in fan vote, '69.

WS/ALCS: Has .234 average (18-for-77) in four world series . . . Has played in all 21 of Orioles world series games . . . Was Birds leading hitter in '66 and '69 series . . . Batted .357 (5-for-14) in '66, .263 (5-for-19) vs. Mets in '69, .294 (5-for-17) in '70 vs. Reds with two homers and five rbi, and .111 (3-for-27) against Pirates in '71.

Has lifetime mark of .378 (14-for-37) with four homers for three ALCS . . . Hit two homers despite injured wrist in second game vs. Oakland in '70, both off Jim Hunter . . . Boog's 9th inning game tieing home run off Jim Perry in the first game of the first ALCS in '69 made possible Birds' dramatic 12th inning, 4-3 win over the Twins on Paul Blair's surprise two strike, two out bunt that scored Mark Belanger from third. The next day Boog scored the winning run from second in the 11th on Curt Motton's single.

Miscellaneous/Personal: Led A.L. in slugging pct. (.606) in 1964 . . . Tied A.L. record with 11 rbi during doubleheader vs. K.C. A's on 7/6/66 . . . Was Birds' most productive hitter on '71 Japan trip with six homers and 14 rbi (18 game schedule), and hit .397 (second to Ellie Hendricks).

Signed by Orioles out of Key West High School where he enjoyed standout career in football and baseball . . . Jim Russo and the late Fred Hofmann signed him . . . Expert fisherman . . . He and his wife, Janet, were married on 7/9/62, and are the parents of three children: John Jr. (6/25/63), Jennifer (11/3/66) and Jill (6/4/71).

Winner of 13 straight "Gold Glove" awards (1960-72) . . . Amazed everyone when he committed three errors in one inning (6th) in a game against Oakland on 7/28/71, the night after he had played hero's role by blasting a two-run homer with two out in 9th to win game off Rollie Fingers. The night of the three errors, Frank Robby came to his rescue with a three-run game winning shot in the 9th, also off Rollie Fingers.

All Star Play: Has .325 batting average (13-for-40) while appearing in 16 straight all star games dating back to 1960 . . . Selected "Most Valuable Player" in 1966 at St. Louis when he had three hits, including a triple, while handling eight chances in the field . . . Homered in 1967 game . . . Hits include three triples . . . Has handled 39 total chances in field without committing an error . . . Leading A.L. vote-getter in 1971 fan balloting (1,110,469).

World Series Play: Among leading hitters in 1971 World Series . . . Batted .318 (7-for-22) and paced O's with five runs batted in . . . Performance in 1970 Series vs. Cincinnati ranks among greatest ever by an individual . . . Selected "Most Valuable Player" . . . Tied record for most hits in five game series while batting .429 with 9-for-21 . . . Hits included two doubles and two home runs and he drove in six runs . . . Had four hits in fourth game . . . Charged with error on first fielding play but was brilliant after that . . . Batted only .053 (1-for-19) in 1969 Series vs. Mets . . . Had 3-for-14 (.214) in 1966 Series vs. Dodgers, including a home run in 1st inning of 1st game . . . Has made only three errors in 75 total chances.

1972 Season: Led club in games (153), at bats (556), hits (139), doubles (23) and tied for lead with seven sacrifice flies . . . Had four hits against Kansas City May 6 . . . Batted .370 vs. Texas . . . Won July 29 game vs. Cleveland with 11th inning home run off Steve Mingori . . . Hit safely in 12 straight games between July 3 and July 14 (first game), longest streak of year among O's . . . Connected in 11 of 12 games between July 16 and July 30.

Career: Needs two hits to reach 2,400 plateau . . . Has been with O's all or part of last 19 seasons . . . Led A.L. with 118 rbi in '64 . . . Has .486 average (18-for-37) in three championship series covering nine games . . . Batted .500 (7-for-14) in '69 and .583 (7-for-12) in '70 (both against the Twins) then hit .364 (4-for-11) vs. Oakland in the '71 ALCS.

Has hit six grand slams in his career: 7/31/60 vs. Cleveland (Gary Bell) at Balto.; 5/6/62 at California—Dodger Stadium (Ken McBride); 5/9/62 (very next game) vs. K.C. A's (Ed Rakow) at Balto.; 7/7/70 vs. N.Y. (Lindy McDaniel) at Balto.; 7/18/71 at Oak. (John Odom), and 9/16/71 vs. N.Y. (Robert Hambright) at Balto.

Beaned by Woody Fryman in Detroit on 9/12/72 in 9th inning but came back to start next day . . . It was seventh time he had been hit in the head by pitched ball starting with Earl Wilson ('55), Ned Garver ('57), John Buzhardt ('63), Phil Niekro ('67), Steve Blass ('68), and Mike Nagy ('70).

Twice in career has put together strings of eight consecutive hits: 7/10 thru 7/15/60 and 8/21 thru 8/23/63 . . . Brooks has missed only 40 of the O's last 2,085 games ('60 thru '72) . . . Four times he has played in every game, and, in 10 of his big league seasons, he has missed three or fewer . . . The only time he has been out of the lineup for any length of time was in '65 when he missed 18 games because of a fractured thumb (from a pitch by Hank Aguirre) and a shoulder injury.

Personal: Orioles player representative . . . Visited U.S. military bases in Germany after '72 season . . . Retains interest in sporting goods store which bears his name in Baltimore and Gorsuch House Restaurant near Memorial Stadium . . . Originally signed by Arthur Ehlers . . . ORIOLE ADVOCATES, INC.

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique non-profit corporation dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. The organization, founded officially in July 1960, comprises 50 regular members and 12 associates drawn from a wide cross section of the business community.

Thru the years the Advocates have made substantial financial contributions primarily to youth organizations, and have played a major role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace on Emory Street. They have also become an essential arm of the Orioles public relations and promotions program. On "give away" days it is the Advocates who distribute the items to the fans, and it was they who originated "camera days" at Memorial Stadium. At virtually every Orioles promotion the Oriole Adovcates are heavily involved.

Their biggest contribution of all, however, has been the formation and annual operation of the Junior Orioles program that began back in 1963 with 750 youngsters and has now grown to over 15,000 members every year. It is a massive undertaking, a "knothole" program with class, that requires a great deal of time and effort. There's an old saying that if you want something done well, ask a busy person to do it . . . The Oriole Advocates are a case in point.

SPRING TRAINING NOTES

Last year for the first time the Orioles were able to consolidate their entire spring training operation in the same geographical area by signing a five year agreement with Biscayne College to provide playing, housing and boarding facilities for all players in the Birds' minor league system (Rochester, Asheville, Lodi and Miami rosters) plus staff members during the spring training period which will begin this year on March 13. The Miami Dolphins also conduct their pre-season training on the Biscayne College campus.

In recent years, the Orioles top farm club, the Rochester Red Wings, trained at Daytona Beach while the other minor league teams in the system were stationed at Fernandina Beach near Jacksonville.
